

Statutes
Can

Canada. Statutes
" Statutes of Canada, 1947, v. 2.

ACTS

OF THE

PARLIAMENT

OF THE

DOMINION OF CANADA

PASSED IN THE SESSION HELD IN THE

ELEVENTH YEAR OF THE REIGN OF HIS MAJESTY

KING GEORGE VI

BEING THE

THIRD SESSION OF THE TWENTIETH PARLIAMENT

Begun and holden at Ottawa, on the Thirtieth day of January, 1947, and closed by Prorogation on the Seventeenth day of July, 1947.

498449

13. 10. 49

FIELD MARSHAL THE RIGHT HONOURABLE

VISCOUNT ALEXANDER OF TUNIS

GOVERNOR GENERAL

VOLUME II

DIVORCE ACTS

OTTAWA
PRINTED BY EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
LAW PRINTER TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
ANNO DOMINI 1947

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2014

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 96.

An Act for the relief of James Arthur Ablett.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS James Arthur Ablett, domiciled in Canada Preamble.
and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, student, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-fifth day of September, A.D. 1941, at the city of Toronto, in the province of Ontario, he and Irene Margaret Palmer, who was then of the said city of Montreal, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts
as follows:—

1. The said marriage between James Arthur Ablett and Marriage dissolved.
Irene Margaret Palmer, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said James Arthur Ablett may at any time Right to marry again.
hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Irene Margaret Palmer had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 97.

An Act for the relief of Margaret Blane Bowen Adair.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Margaret Blane Bowen Adair, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Robert Milroy Adair, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-ninth day of April, A.D. 1933, at the city of Westmount, in the said province, she then being Margaret Blane Bowen, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Margaret Blane Bowen and Robert Milroy Adair, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Margaret Blane Bowen may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Robert Milroy Adair had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 98.

An Act for the relief of Clifford Gilbert Adams.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Clifford Gilbert Adams, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, has by his petition alleged that on the seventeenth day of January, A.D. 1946, at the said city, he and Elsie Doreen Thomas Driscoll, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Clifford Gilbert Adams and Elsie Doreen Thomas Driscoll, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Clifford Gilbert Adams may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Elsie Doreen Thomas Driscoll had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 99.

An Act for the relief of Muriel Agnes Martin Adams.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Muriel Agnes Martin Adams, residing at the city of Westmount, in the province of Quebec, confectioner, wife of Frederick George Adams, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Granby, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the nineteenth day of October, A.D. 1940, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, she then being Muriel Agnes Martin; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Muriel Agnes Martin and Frederick George Adams, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Muriel Agnes Martin may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Frederick George Adams had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 100.

An Act for the relief of Elsie McCormick Albers.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Elsie McCormick Albers, residing at the Preamble.
city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Louis Andre Albers, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-seventh day of April,
A.D. 1940, at the city of Westmount, in the said province, she then being Elsie McCormick, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery
since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the
said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons
of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Elsie McCormick and Marriage dissolved.
Louis Andre Albers, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Elsie McCormick may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Louis Andre Albers had not
been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 101.

An Act for the relief of Beatrice Dorothy Pountney Alker.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Beatrice Dorothy Pountney Alker, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, nurse, wife of Thomas Alker, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighteenth day of August, A.D. 1945, at the city of Birmingham, England, she then being Beatrice Dorothy Pountney, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Beatrice Dorothy Pountney and Thomas Alker, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Beatrice Dorothy Pountney may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Thomas Alker had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 102.

An Act for the relief of Marion Mapes Harvey Allinson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Marion Mapes Harvey Allinson, residing at Preamble.
the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Robert Allinson, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifteenth day of November, A.D. 1929, at the said city, she then being Marion Mapes Harvey, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that,
because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that
the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House
of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Marion Mapes Harvey Marriage dissolved. and Robert Allinson, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Marion Mapes Harvey may at any time Right to marry again.
hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry
if the said marriage with the said Robert Allinson had not
been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 103.

An Act for the relief of Lilly Evans Auty.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Lilly Evans Auty, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Bertson Brownridge Auty, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the tenth day of August, A.D. 1929, at the said city, she then being Lilly Evans, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Lilly Evans and Bertson Brownridge Auty, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Lilly Evans may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Bertson Brownridge Auty had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 104.

An Act for the relief of Julia Luella Audrey Cleroux Babbage.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Julia Luella Audrey Cleroux Babbage, Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, secretary, wife of Travers Whitmore Babbage, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the tenth day of June, A.D. 1944, at the said city, she then being Julia Luella Audrey Cleroux, a spinster; and whereas
by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery
since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the
said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons
of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Julia Luella Audrey Marriage Cleroux and Travers Whitmore Babbage, her husband, is dissolved.
hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Julia Luella Audrey Cleroux may at any Right to time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry again.
marry if the said marriage with the said Travers Whitmore Babbage had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 105.

An Act for the relief of Bernard Stanley Bailey.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Bernard Stanley Bailey, domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Waterville, in the province of Quebec, electrician, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-eighth day of June, A.D. 1937, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, he and Muriel Aileen Davies, who was then of the city of Richmond, in the said province, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Bernard Stanley Bailey and Muriel Aileen Davies, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Bernard Stanley Bailey may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Muriel Aileen Davies had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 106.

An Act for the relief of Rose Waselevsky Balakirsky.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Rose Waselevsky Balakirsky, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, saleslady, wife of Ovido Balakirsky, otherwise known as Ovido Black, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighteenth day of June, A.D. 1919, at the town of Lokashofka, in the province of Kiev, Russia, she then being Rose Waselevsky, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Rose Waselevsky and Ovido Balakirsky, otherwise known as Ovido Black, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Rose Waselevsky may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Ovido Balakirsky, otherwise known as Ovido Black had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 107.

An Act for the relief of Margaret Lillian McCorkell Baldwin.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Margaret Lillian McCorkell Baldwin, residing at the city of Outremont, in the province of Quebec, comptometer operator, wife of Elmer Raymond Baldwin, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourteenth day of September, A.D. 1940, at the said city, she then being Margaret Lillian McCorkell, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Margaret Lillian McCorkell and Elmer Raymond Baldwin, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Margaret Lillian McCorkell may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Elmer Raymond Baldwin had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 108.

An Act for the relief of Hilda Wylie Bannister.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Hilda Wylie Bannister, residing at the town of Montreal South, in the province of Quebec, cashier, wife of Samuel Reginald Bannister, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-eighth day of August, A.D. 1940, at the said city, she then being Hilda Wylie, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Hilda Wylie and Samuel Reginald Bannister, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Hilda Wylie may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Samuel Reginald Bannister had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 109.

An Act for the relief of Elizabeth McIntosh Barber.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Elizabeth McIntosh Barber, residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, waitress, wife of John Walter Barber, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the first day of November, A.D. 1941, at the said city, she then being Elizabeth McIntosh, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Elizabeth McIntosh and John Walter Barber, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Elizabeth McIntosh may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said John Walter Barber had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 110.

An Act for the relief of Gertie Rabin Bard.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Gertie Rabin Bard, residing at the city of Preamble.
Montreal, in the province of Quebec, saleslady, wife of Harry Bard, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourth day of July, A.D. 1943, at the city of Halifax, in the province of Nova Scotia, she then being Gertie Rabin, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Gertie Rabin and Harry Marriage
dissolved.
Bard, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Gertie Rabin may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Harry Bard had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 111.

An Act for the relief of Edward Charles Barron.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Edward Charles Barron, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, mechanic, has by his petition alleged that on the first day of March, A.D. 1933, at the said city, he and Mary Hepburn, who was then of the city of Montreal, in the said province, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Edward Charles Barron and Mary Hepburn, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Edward Charles Barron may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Mary Hepburn had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 112.

An Act for the relief of Lorne Earl Barth.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Lorne Earl Barth, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, machinist, has by his petition alleged that on the thirtieth day of March, A.D. 1934, at the said city, he and Agnes Keen Lyall, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Lorne Earl Barth and Marriage
dissolved.
Agnes Keen Lyall, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Lorne Earl Barth may at any time hereafter Right to
marry again.
marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Agnes Keen Lyall had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 113.

An Act for the relief of Sydney Beaver.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Sydney Beaver, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, mechanic, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-second day of December, A.D. 1932, at the said city, he and Marie Stella Splourde, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Sydney Beaver and Marie Stella Splourde, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Sydney Beaver may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Marie Stella Splourde had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 114.

An Act for the relief of George Somerville Blackie Begg.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS George Somerville Blackie Begg, domiciled Preamble, in Canada and residing at the town of Ville St. Pierre, in the province of Quebec, press operator, has by his petition alleged that on the eighth day of February, A.D. 1941, at the city of Lachine, in the said province, he and Lorna Ada Hineson, who was then of the said city, a spinster,
were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed
that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery
have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between George Somerville Blackie Marriage Begg and Lorna Ada Hineson, his wife, is hereby dissolved, dissolved.
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said George Somerville Blackie Begg may at any Right to time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry again.
marry if the said marriage with the said Lorna Ada Hineson
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 115.

An Act for the relief of Gilberto (Albert) Belmonte.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Gilberto (Albert) Belmonte, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, chauffeur, has by his petition alleged that on the fourteenth day of December, A.D. 1925, at the said city, he and Florida Charbonneau, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Gilberto (Albert) Belmonte and Florida Charbonneau, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Gilberto (Albert) Belmonte may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Florida Charbonneau had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 116.

An Act for the relief of Philip Berger.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Philip Berger, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, refrigerator service man, has by his petition alleged that on the eleventh day of April, A.D. 1945, at the city of Manchester, England, he and Miriam Meek, who was then of the said city of Manchester, a spinster,
were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed
that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery
have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient
that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Philip Berger and Miriam Marriage dissolved.
Meek, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Philip Berger may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Miriam Meek had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 117.

An Act for the relief of Margaret Hamilton Wilson Bergeron.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Margaret Hamilton Wilson Bergeron, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, secretary, wife of Rodolphe Maurice Bergeron, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventh day of July, A.D. 1945, at the city of Hamilton, in the province of Ontario, she then being Margaret Hamilton Wilson, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Margaret Hamilton Wilson and Rodolphe Maurice Bergeron, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Margaret Hamilton Wilson may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Rodolphe Maurice Bergeron had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 118.

An Act for the relief of Aime Bibeau.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Aime Bibeau, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, fireman, has by his petition alleged that on the sixteenth day of September, A.D. 1939, at the said city, he and Paulette Lavallee, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their
marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts
as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Aime Bibeau and Paulette Marriage dissolved.
Lavallee, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Aime Bibeau may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Paulette Lavallee had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 119.

An Act for the relief of Ursula Catherine Tetreau Black.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Ursula Catherine Tetreau Black, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, receptionist, wife of Charles Somerville Black, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-seventh day of May, A.D. 1944, at the said city, she then being Ursula Catherine Tetreau, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayer that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Ursula Catherine Tetreau and Charles Somerville Black, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Ursula Catherine Tetreau may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Charles Somerville Black had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 120.

An Act for the relief of Eileen Louise Thomas Bleakney.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Eileen Louise Thomas Bleakney, residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, wife of Frank Brookes Bleakney, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourteenth day of September, A.D. 1929, at the said city of Verdun, she then being Eileen Louise Thomas, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Eileen Louise Thomas and Frank Brookes Bleakney, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Eileen Louise Thomas may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Frank Brookes Bleakney had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 121.

An Act for the relief of Rose Housefield Blumstein.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Rose Housefield Blumstein, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, fur finisher, wife of Peter Blumstein, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourteenth day of September, A.D. 1944, at the city of Ottawa, in the province of Ontario, she then being Rose Housefield, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Rose Housefield and Peter Blumstein, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Rose Housefield may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Peter Blumstein had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 122.

An Act for the relief of Helen Lilian Jaques Bowen.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Helen Lilian Jaques Bowen, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Osborn Brice Bowen, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-fourth day of August, A.D. 1940, at the said city, she then being Helen Lilian Jaques, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Helen Lilian Jaques and Osborn Brice Bowen, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Helen Lilian Jaques may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Osborn Brice Bowen had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 123.

An Act for the relief of Douglas Wilson Bradshaw.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Douglas Wilson Bradshaw, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, painter, has by his petition alleged that on the thirtieth day of November, A.D. 1940, at the said city, he and Margaret Stewart Weir Hogg, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Douglas Wilson Bradshaw and Margaret Stewart Weir Hogg, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Douglas Wilson Bradshaw may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Margaret Stewart Weir Hogg had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 124.

An Act for the relief of Esther Mary Harding Breeze.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Esther Mary Harding Breeze, residing at Cote St. Paul, in the district of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, stenographer, wife of Robert Richard Breeze, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Verdun, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the sixth day of October, A.D. 1935, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, she then being Esther Mary Harding, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Esther Mary Harding and Robert Richard Breeze, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Esther Mary Harding may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Robert Richard Breeze had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 125.

An Act for the relief of Patricia Violet Puttock Bromby.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Patricia Violet Puttock Bromby, residing at the town of Cowansville, in the province of Quebec, artist, wife of John McEwan Bromby, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said town, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the ninth day of October, A.D. 1943, at Chessington, in the county of Surrey, England, she then being Patricia Violet Puttock, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Patricia Violet Puttock and John McEwan Bromby, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Patricia Violet Puttock may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said John McEwan Bromby had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 126.

An Act for the relief of Agnes Dowd Brown.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Agnes Dowd Brown, residing at the city of Preamble.
Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Ormonde Wellington Brown, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Knowlton, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twentieth day of May, A.D. 1935, at the town of Richford, in the state of Vermont, one of the United States of America, she then being Agnes Dowd, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery
since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the
said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Agnes Dowd and Ormonde Marriage dissolved.
Wellington Brown, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Agnes Dowd may at any time hereafter Right to marry again
marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Ormonde Wellington Brown had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 127.

An Act for the relief of Ivy Stapleton Brown.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Ivy Stapleton Brown, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Sidney Brown, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the sixteenth day of February, A.D. 1936, at the said city, she then being Ivy Stapleton, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Ivy Stapleton and Sidney Brown, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Ivy Stapleton may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Sidney Brown had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 128.

An Act for the relief of Mary Margaret Rider Brown.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Mary Margaret Rider Brown, residing at Preamble;
the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec,
registered nurse, wife of Scott Alexander Walter Brown, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at Mansonville, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifteenth day of November, A.D. 1940, at Fitch Bay, in the said province, she then being Mary Margaret Rider, a spinster; and whereas by her petition
she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then,
their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts
as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Mary Margaret Rider and Marriage
dissolved.
Scott Alexander Walter Brown, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Mary Margaret Rider may at any time Right to
marry again.
hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry
if the said marriage with the said Scott Alexander Walter Brown had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 129.

An Act for the relief of William Howell MacDonald Brown.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS William Howell MacDonald Brown, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, manufacturer, has by his petition alleged that on the sixth day of June, A.D. 1942, at the said city, he and Nina Lee Franklin, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between William Howell MacDonald Brown and Nina Lee Franklin, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said William Howell MacDonald Brown may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Nina Lee Franklin had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 130.

An Act for the relief of Muriel Lucy Brighten Burdon.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Muriel Lucy Brighten Burdon, residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, wife of Robert Potts Burdon, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-fifth day of June, A.D. 1938, at the said city, she then being Muriel Lucy Brighten, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Muriel Lucy Brighten and Robert Potts Burdon, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Muriel Lucy Brighten may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Robert Potts Burdon had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 131.

An Act for the relief of Margaret Betty Rollings Burman.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Margaret Betty Rollings Burman, residing at the town of Valois, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Harold Charles Burman, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the village of St. Eustache sur Lac, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-seventh day of January, A.D. 1936, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, she then being Margaret Betty Rollings, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Margaret Betty Rollings and Harold Charles Burman, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Margaret Betty Rollings may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Harold Charles Burman had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 132.

An Act for the relief of Gabriel Burszan.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Gabriel Burszan, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, butcher, has by his petition alleged that on the fifth day of August, A.D. 1928, at the said city, he and Ida Sebe, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have
been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty,
by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House
of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Gabriel Burszan and Marriage Ida Sebe, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be hence- dissolved.
forth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Gabriel Burszan may at any time hereafter Right to marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the marry again.
said marriage with the said Ida Sebe had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 133.

An Act for the relief of Naomi Joan Williamson Cantlie.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Naomi Joan Williamson Cantlie, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of George Stephen Forbes Cantlie, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourth day of December, A.D. 1943, at the said city, she then being Naomi Joan Williamson, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Naomi Joan Williamson and George Stephen Forbes Cantlie, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Naomi Joan Williamson may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said George Stephen Forbes Cantlie had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 134.

An Act for the relief of William John Carmichael.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS William John Carmichael, domiciled in Preamble.
Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, machinist, has by his petition alleged that on the twelfth day of October, A.D. 1931, at the said city, he and Mary Irene de Repentigny, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery
since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the
said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice
and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of
Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between William John Carmichael Marriage dissolved. and Mary Irene de Repentigny, his wife, is hereby dissolved,
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said William John Carmichael may at any time Right to marry again.
hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Mary Irene de Repentigny had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 135.

An Act for the relief of James Albert Carruthers, otherwise known as James Albert Fell.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS James Albert Carruthers, otherwise known as James Albert Fell, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, airman, has by his petition alleged that on the second day of March, A.D. 1940, at the said city, he and Elizabeth Adelaide Desmarchais, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between James Albert Carruthers, otherwise known as James Albert Fell, and Elizabeth Adelaide Desmarchais, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said James Albert Carruthers, otherwise known as James Albert Fell, may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Elizabeth Adelaide Desmarchais, had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 136.

An Act for the relief of Gaston Cartier.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Gaston Cartier, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, manager, has by his petition alleged that on the thirty-first day of July, A.D. 1942, at the said city, he and Marguerite St. Amour, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has
prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their
marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts
as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Gaston Cartier and Marriage Marguerite St. Amour, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and dissolved.
shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Gaston Cartier may at any time hereafter Right to marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the marry again.
said marriage with the said Marguerite St. Amour had not
been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 137.

An Act for the relief of Mildred Verna Ruth Schnaufer Case.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Mildred Verna Ruth Schnaufer Case, residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, mannequin, wife of Donald Cortlandt Case, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Westmount, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-sixth day of September, A.D. 1943, at the said city of Westmount, she then being Mildred Verna Ruth Schnaufer, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Mildred Verna Ruth Schnaufer and Donald Cortlandt Case, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Mildred Verna Ruth Schnaufer may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Donald Cortlandt Case had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 138.

An Act for the relief of Norma Mary Sharp Chapman.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Norma Mary Sharp Chapman, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, secretary, wife of Herbert Chapman, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twelfth day of November, A.D. 1942, at the said city, she then being Norma Mary Sharp, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Norma Mary Sharp and Herbert Chapman, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Norma Mary Sharp may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Herbert Chapman had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 139.

An Act for the relief of Evelyn Alice Lancaster Chenoweth.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Evelyn Alice Lancaster Chenoweth, residing at the town of Reading, in the state of Massachusetts, one of the United States of America, executive assistant, wife of David MacPherson Chenoweth, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventeenth day of August, A.D. 1940, at the said city, she then being Evelyn Alice Lancaster, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Evelyn Alice Lancaster and David MacPherson Chenoweth, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Evelyn Alice Lancaster may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said David MacPherson Chenoweth had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 140.

An Act for the relief of Rita Johnson Cherrier.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Rita Johnson Cherrier, residing at the city of Lachine, in the province of Quebec, packer, wife of Joseph Clodomir Adrien Cherrier, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the third day of March, A.D. 1930, at the said city, she then being Rita Johnson, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Rita Johnson and Joseph Clodomir Adrien Cherrier, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Rita Johnson may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Joseph Clodomir Adrien Cherrier had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 141.

An Act for the relief of Mary Joyce Joly Clark.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Mary Joyce Joly Clark, residing at the city of Westmount, in the province of Quebec, wife of William Thomas Hall Clark, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the sixteenth day of June, A.D. 1945, at Darlington, in the county of Durham, England, she then being Mary Joyce Joly, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Mary Joyce Joly and William Thomas Hall Clark, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Mary Joyce Joly may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said William Thomas Hall Clark had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 142.

An Act for the relief of Violet Olive Magdalene Allchin Clark.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Violet Olive Magdalene Allchin Clark, Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, teletypist, wife of Thomas Pacey Clark, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventh day of August, A.D. 1943, at Fulham, in the county of London, England, she then being Violet Olive Magdalene Allchin, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Violet Olive Madgalene Allchin and Thomas Pacey Clark, her husband, is hereby Marriage dissolved.
dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Violet Olive Magdalene Allchin may at Right to marry again.
any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Thomas Pacey Clark had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 143.

An Act for the relief of Sophie Radwolsky Closner.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Sophie Radwolsky Closner, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, book-keeper, wife of Joseph Closner, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-ninth day of June, A.D. 1934, at the said city, she then being Sophie Radwolsky, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Sophie Radwolsky and Joseph Closner, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Sophie Radwolsky may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Joseph Closner had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 144.

An Act for the relief of Jessie Leonard Simpson Clunie.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Jessie Leonard Simpson Clunie, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Robert Clunie, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the ninth day of November, A.D. 1917, at the said city, she then being Jessie Leonard Simpson, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Jessie Leonard Simpson and Robert Clunie, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Jessie Leonard Simpson may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Robert Clunie had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 145.

An Act for the relief of Claude Garcin Coffin.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Claude Garcin Coffin, domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Pointe Claire, in the province of Quebec, clerk, has by his petition alleged that on the eighth day of April, A.D. 1923, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, he and Ruth Eleanor Whitney, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Claude Garcin Coffin and Ruth Eleanor Whitney, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Claude Garcin Coffin may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Ruth Eleanor Whitney had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 146.

An Act for the relief of Sarah Goldberg Cohen.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Sarah Goldberg Cohen, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, book-keeper, wife of Benjamin Cohen, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-eighth day of December, A.D. 1935, at the said city, she then being Sarah Goldberg, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Sarah Goldberg and Benjamin Cohen, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Sarah Goldberg may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Benjamin Cohen had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 147.

An Act for the relief of Alberta Dorothy Olson Colby.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Alberta Dorothy Olson Colby, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Joseph Rutherford Colby, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eleventh day of April, A.D. 1936, at the city of Regina, in the province of Saskatchewan, she then being Alberta Dorothy Olson, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Alberta Dorothy Olson and Joseph Rutherford Colby, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Alberta Dorothy Olson may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Joseph Rutherford Colby had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 148.

An Act for the relief of Gertrude Helen Cayford Collins.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Gertrude Helen Cayford Collins, residing at the city of St. Lambert, in the province of Quebec, office clerk, wife of William Harcourt Collins, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-fourth day of November, A.D. 1934, at the said city of St. Lambert, she then being Gertrude Helen Cayford, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Gertrude Helen Cayford and William Harcourt Collins, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Gertrude Helen Cayford may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said William Harcourt Collins had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 149.

An Act for the relief of Woolf (Robert) Cook.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Woolf (Robert) Cook, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, barber, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-fifth day of July, A.D. 1937, at the city of London, England, he and Yetta Helman, who was then of the said city of London, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Woolf (Robert) Cook and Yetta Helman, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Woolf (Robert) Cook may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Yetta Helman had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 150.

An Act for the relief of Bruce Montgomery Cooper.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Bruce Montgomery Cooper, domiciled in Preamble.
Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, physician, has by his petition alleged that on the fourteenth day of September, A.D. 1943, at the city of Westmount, in the said province, he and Margaret Hill Robinson, who was then of the said city of Westmount, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their
marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts
as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Bruce Montgomery Cooper Marriage dissolved. and Margaret Hill Robinson, his wife, is hereby dissolved,
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Bruce Montgomery Cooper may at any time Right to marry again.
hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry
if the said marriage with the said Margaret Hill Robinson
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 151.

An Act for the relief of Grace Evelyn Smith Copeland.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Grace Evelyn Smith Copeland, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, secretary, wife of Morris Copeland, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the ninth day of January, A.D. 1932, at the city of Toronto, in the province of Ontario, she then being Grace Evelyn Smith, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Grace Evelyn Smith and Morris Copeland, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Grace Evelyn Smith may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Morris Copeland had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 152.

An Act for the relief of Guido Corbo.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Guido Corbo, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, grocer, has by his petition alleged that on the first day of December, A.D. 1934, at the said city, he and Filomena D'Attilio, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery
since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the
said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice
and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of
Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Guido Corbo and Filomena Marriage D'Attilio, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be hence- dissolved.
forth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Guido Corbo may at any time hereafter Right to marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the marry again.
said marriage with the said Filomena D'Attilio had not
been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 153.

An Act for the relief of Joseph Amedee Alexis Cousineau.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Joseph Amedee Alexis Cousineau, domiciled in Canada and residing at the village of Laval des Rapides, in the province of Quebec, salesman, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-seventh day of May, A.D. 1940, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, he and Lillian Pearly Storey, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Joseph Amedee Alexis Cousineau and Lillian Pearly Storey, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again

2. The said Joseph Amedee Alexis Cousineau may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Lillian Pearly Storey had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 154.

An Act for the relief of Ethel Mary McKenzie Cramp.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Ethel Mary McKenzie Cramp, residing at Preamble.
the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, waitress, wife of Ralph George Albert Cramp, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twentieth day of May, A.D. 1933, at the said city, she then being Ethel Mary McKenzie, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said
marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons
of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Ethel Mary McKenzie Marriage and Ralph George Albert Cramp, her husband, is hereby dissolved.
dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Ethel Mary McKenzie may at any time Right to hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry marry again if the said marriage with the said Ralph George Albert Cramp had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 155.

An Act for the relief of Rosamond Edith Bean Crease.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Rosamond Edith Bean Crease, residing at the city of Sherbrooke, in the province of Quebec, waitress, wife of Christopher William Crease, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twelfth day of November, A.D. 1936, at Eustis, in the said province, she then being Rosamond Edith Bean, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Rosamond Edith Bean and Christopher William Crease, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Rosamond Edith Bean may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Christopher William Crease had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 156.

An Act for the relief of Gabrielle Augustine Gilberte Desmarais Creelman.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Gabrielle Augustine Gilberte Desmarais Creelman, residing at the city of Outremont, in the province of Quebec, wife of John Ashmore Creelman, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourteenth day of November, A.D. 1939, at the said city of Montreal, she then being Gabrielle Augustine Gilberte Desmarais, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Gabrielle Augustine Gilberte Desmarais and John Ashmore Creelman, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Gabrielle Augustine Gilberte Desmarais may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said John Ashmore Creelman had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 157.

An Act for the relief of Mary Josephine Jessop Croker.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

reamble.

WHEREAS Mary Josephine Jessop Croker, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, book-keeper, wife of Robert William Croker, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifteenth day of June, A.D. 1938, at the said city, she then being Mary Josephine Jessop, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Mary Josephine Jessop and Robert William Croker, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Mary Josephine Jessop may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Robert William Croker had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 158.

An Act for the relief of Evelyn Clara Woods Cross.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Evelyn Clara Woods Cross, residing at the Preamble. city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, coil winder, wife of William Cross, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-fifth day of September,
A.D. 1943, at the said city, she then being Evelyn Clara Woods, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their
marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts
as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Evelyn Clara Woods and Marriage William Cross, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall dissolved.
be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Evelyn Clara Woods may at any time Right to hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry marry again.
if the said marriage with the said William Cross had not
been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 159.

An Act for the relief of Lilly Elizabeth Ingborg Lindfors Crowhurst.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble:

WHEREAS Lilly Elizabeth Ingborg Lindfors Crowhurst, residing at the town of Mount Royal, in the province of Quebec, cashier, wife of George Goodbody Crowhurst, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighth day of May, A.D. 1942, at the city of Westmount, in the said province, she then being Lilly Elizabeth Ingborg Lindfors, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Lilly Elizabeth Ingborg Lindfors and George Goodbody Crowhurst, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Lilly Elizabeth Ingborg Lindfors may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said George Goodbody Crowhurst had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 160.

An Act for the relief of Evelyn Margaret Morrison Cryer.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Evelyn Margaret Morrison Cryer, residing Preamble.
at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, assistant supervisor, wife of Edward Howarth Cryer, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eleventh day of September, A.D. 1936, at the city of New York, in the state of New York, one of the United States of America, she then being Evelyn Margaret Morrison, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Evelyn Margaret Morrison Marriage dissolved.
and Edward Howarth Cryer, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Evelyn Margaret Morrison may at any Right to marry again.
time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Edward Howarth Cryer had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 161.

An Act for the relief of Matilda Jane Cumming.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Matilda Jane Cumming, residing at the city of Toronto, in the province of Ontario, wife of Melville Erskine Cumming, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-ninth day of March, A.D. 1944, in the district of St. Marylebone, in the metropolitan borough of St. Marylebone, England, she then being Matilda Jane Hancock; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Matilda Jane Hancock and Melville Erskine Cumming, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Matilda Jane Hancock may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Melville Erskine Cumming had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 162.

An Act for the relief of Lily Elizabeth Harris Cunningham.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Lily Elizabeth Harris Cunningham, residing Preamble.
at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Roy Cunningham, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the tenth day of October, A.D. 1942, at Ashford, in the county of Kent, England, she then being Lily Elizabeth Harris, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery
since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the
said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons
of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Lily Elizabeth Harris and Marriage dissolved.
Roy Cunningham, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Lily Elizabeth Harris may at any time here- Right to marry again.
after marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Roy Cunningham had not
been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 163.

An Act for the relief of Margaret Isabelle Curry.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Margaret Isabelle Curry, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Rufus Malcolm Curry, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the tenth day of June, A.D. 1931, at the town of Bridgewater, in the province of Nova Scotia, she then being Margaret Isabelle Barnaby, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Margaret Isabelle Barnaby and Rufus Malcolm Curry, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Margaret Isabelle Barnaby may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Rufus Malcolm Curry had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 164.

An Act for the relief of Pauline Bertha Marwick Dallison.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Pauline Bertha Marwick Dallison, residing Preamble; at the city of Montreal West, in the province of Quebec, wife of William Eric Dallison, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Westmount, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-second day of June, A.D. 1929, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, she then being Pauline Bertha Marwick, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as
follows:—

1. The said marriage between Pauline Bertha Marwick Marriage and William Eric Dallison, her husband, is hereby dissolved, dissolved and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Pauline Bertha Marwick may at any time Right to hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry marry again.
if the said marriage with the said William Eric Dallison
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 165.

An Act for the relief of Emilienne Grinsell Daoust.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Emilienne Grinsell Daoust, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Remi Daoust, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the ninth day of July, A.D. 1935, at the said city, she then being Emilienne Grinsell, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Emilienne Grinsell and Remi Daoust, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Emilienne Grinsell may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Remi Daoust had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 166.

An Act for the relief of Edith Norma Isaac Davidson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Edith Norma Isaac Davidson, residing at Preamble.
the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Charles Davidson, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-sixth day of October,
A.D. 1944, at the said city, she then being Edith Norma Isaac, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have
been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that
the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Edith Norma Isaac and Marriage dissolved.
Charles Davidson, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Edith Norma Isaac may at any time here- Right to marry again.
after marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Charles Davidson had not
been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 167.

An Act for the relief of Eileen Millar De Levi.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Eileen Millar De Levi, residing at the town of Greenfield Park, in the province of Quebec, wife of Pierre Liwentaal De Levi, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourteenth day of April, A.D. 1938, at the said city, she then being Eileen Millar, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Eileen Millar and Pierre Liwentaal De Levi, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Eileen Millar may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Pierre Liwentaal De Levi had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 168.

An Act for the relief of Hilda Katz Delnick.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Hilda Katz Delnick, residing at the city of Preamble.
Montreal, in the province of Quebec, sales clerk, wife of Louis Delnick, shipping clerk, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the thirteenth day of February, A.D. 1944, at the said city, she then being Hilda Katz,
a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that,
because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that
the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty,
by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House
of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Hilda Katz and Louis Marriage Delnick, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be dissolved.
henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Hilda Katz may at any time hereafter marry Right to any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage marry again.
with the said Louis Delnick had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 169.

An Act for the relief of Maud Mary Rose Denton.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Maud Mary Rose Denton, residing at the city of Ottawa, in the province of Ontario, wife of William Denton, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Hull, in the province of Quebec, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-third day of April, A.D. 1927, at the said city of Ottawa, she then being Maud Mary Rose Menchini, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Maud Mary Rose Menchini and William Denton, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Maud Mary Rose Menchini may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said William Denton had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 170.

An Act for the relief of Jessie Alberta Allan Derby.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Jessie Alberta Allan Derby, residing at Rosemere, in the province of Quebec, executive director, wife of Arthur Robert Derby, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the nineteenth day of February, A.D. 1927, at the said city, she then being Jessie Alberta Allan, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Jessie Alberta Allan and Arthur Robert Derby, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Jessie Alberta Allan may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Arthur Robert Derby had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 171.

An Act for the relief of Norma Lorraine Desrosiers.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Norma Lorraine Desrosiers, residing at the city of Peterborough, in the province of Ontario, traffic manageress, wife of Roger Walter Desrosiers, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighth day of November, A.D. 1939, at the city of Halifax, in the province of Nova Scotia, she then being Norma Lorraine Fowler, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Norma Lorraine Fowler and Roger Walter Desrosiers, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Norma Lorraine Fowler may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Roger Walter Desrosiers had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.;
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 172.

An Act for the relief of James Dewey, junior.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS James Dewey, junior, domiciled in Canada Preamble. and residing at the township of Stanstead, in the province of Quebec, farmer, has by his petition alleged that on the eighth day of October, A.D. 1934, at the town of Coaticook, in the said province, he and Margaret Agnes Patterson, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since
then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said
marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice
and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of
Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between James Dewey, junior, and Marriage dissolved.
Margaret Agnes Patterson, his wife, is hereby dissolved,
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said James Dewey, junior, may at any time here- Right to marry again.
after marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if if the said marriage with the said Margaret Agnes Patterson
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 173.

An Act for the relief of Isabel Lindsay Mackay Dietz.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Isabel Lindsay Mackay Dietz, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Henry Irvin Holger Dietz, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eleventh day of June, A.D. 1929, at the said city, she then being Isabel Lindsay Mackay, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Isabel Lindsay Mackay and Henry Irvin Holger Dietz, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Isabel Lindsay Mackay may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Henry Irvin Holger Dietz had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 174.

An Act for the relief of Agnes Jane Irwin Everitt Dixon.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Agnes Jane Irwin Everitt Dixon, residing Preamble.
at the city of Lachine, in the province of Quebec, wife of Henry Dixon, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at Ville St. Pierre, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-ninth day of May, A.D. 1943, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, she then being Agnes Jane Irwin Everitt, a widow; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that,
because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Agnes Jane Irwin Everitt Marriage dissolved. and Henry Dixon, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Agnes Jane Irwin Everitt may at any time Right to marry again.
hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Henry Dixon had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 175.

An Act for the relief of Florence Alice Mapston Calcutt Doak.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Florence Alice Mapston Calcutt Doak, residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, dental assistant, wife of Edwin Stanley Doak, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the second day of August, A.D. 1930, at the said city of Verdun, she then being Florence Alice Mapston Calcutt, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Florence Alice Mapston Calcutt and Edwin Stanley Doak, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Florence Alice Mapston Calcutt may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Edwin Stanley Doak had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 176.

An Act for the relief of Clinton Leslie Dobson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Clinton Leslie Dobson, domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of New Carlisle, in the province of Quebec, labourer, has by his petition alleged that on the fifteenth day of December, A.D. 1938, at the said town, he and Freda Jean Gallant, who was then of the said town, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Clinton Leslie Dobson and Freda Jean Gallant, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Clinton Leslie Dobson may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Freda Jean Gallant had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 177.

An Act for the relief of Charles Augustus Dolling.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Charles Augustus Dolling, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, fitter, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-fifth day of November, A.D. 1933, at the said city, he and Nora Margaret Young, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Charles Augustus Dolling and Nora Margaret Young, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Charles Augustus Dolling may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Nora Margaret Young had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 178.

An Act for the relief of Gladys Elizabeth Thompson Dorrance.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Gladys Elizabeth Thompson Dorrance, Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Frank Sinton Dorrance, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the thirtieth day of January, A.D. 1926, at the said city, she then being Gladys Elizabeth Thompson, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since
then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said
marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice
and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of
Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Gladys Elizabeth Marriage dissolved.
Thompson and Frank Sinton Dorrance, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Gladys Elizabeth Thompson may at any Right to marry again.
time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Frank Sinton Dorrance had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 179.

An Act for the relief of Margaret Jean Duff Dorval.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Margaret Jean Duff Dorval, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Rene Dorval, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourteenth day of May, A.D. 1942, in the district of St. Marylebone, in the metropolitan borough of St. Marylebone, England, she then being Margaret Jean Duff, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Margaret Jean Duff and Rene Dorval, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Margaret Jean Duff may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Rene Dorval had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 180.

An Act for the relief of Madeleine Agnes Joly de Lotbiniere Doucet.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Madeleine Agnes Joly de Lotbiniere Doucet, Preamble. residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of John Lyell Bruyeres Doucet, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the thirteenth day of June, A.D. 1936, at the said city, she then being Madeleine Agnes Joly de Lotbiniere, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Madeleine Agnes Joly de Lotbiniere and John Lyell Bruyeres Doucet, her husband, Marriage dissolved.
is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Madeleine Agnes Joly de Lotbiniere may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said John Lyell Bruyeres Doucet had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 181.

An Act for the relief of Margaret Sophie Bolenski Dubeau.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Margaret Sophie Bolenski Dubeau, residing at the town of Barrington, in the province of Quebec, housekeeper, wife of Nelson Enoch Dubeau, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Sherbrooke, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twelfth day of November, A.D. 1932, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, she then being Margaret Sophie Bolenski, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Margaret Sophie Bolenski and Nelson Enoch Dubeau, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Margaret Sophie Bolenski may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Nelson Enoch Dubeau had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 182.

An Act for the relief of Celia Yaffe Dubinsky.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Celia Yaffe Dubinsky, residing at the city of Preamble.
Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Issy (Isidore) Dubinsky, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the tenth day of March, A.D. 1918, at the said city, she then being Celia Yaffe, a spinster; and whereas
by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts
as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Celia Yaffe and Issy Marriage (Isidore) Dubinsky, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and dissolved.
shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Celia Yaffe may at any time hereafter marry Right to any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage marry again.
with the said Issy (Isidore) Dubinsky had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 183.

An Act for the relief of Eileen Edna Paget Bray Dundas.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Eileen Edna Paget Bray Dundas, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, hairdresser, wife of Douglas Albert Dundas, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the tenth day of June, A.D. 1939, at the town of Peace River, in the province of Alberta, she then being Eileen Edna Paget Bray, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Eileen Edna Paget Bray, and Douglas Albert Dundas, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Eileen Edna Paget Bray may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Douglas Albert Dundas had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 184.

An Act for the relief of Mary Winifred Joyce Dick Dunford.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Mary Winifred Joyce Dick Dunford, residing Preamble.
at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Errington Parrish Dunford, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-fifth day of August, A.D. 1931, at the city of Gosforth, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, England, she then being Mary Winifred Joyce Dick, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that
the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty,
by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House
of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Mary Winifred Joyce Marriage Dick and Errington Parrish Dunford, her husband, is dissolved.
hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to
all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Mary Winifred Joyce Dick may at any time Right to hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry marry again.
if the said marriage with the said Errington Parrish Dunford
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 185.

An Act for the relief of Muriel Emma Wood Durrell.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Muriel Emma Wood Durrell, residing at the city of Granby, in the province of Quebec, housekeeper, wife of Clarence Edwin Durrell, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Waterloo, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twelfth day of December, A.D. 1931, at the said town, she then being Muriel Emma Wood, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Muriel Emma Wood and Clarence Edwin Durrell, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Muriel Emma Wood may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Clarence Edwin Durrell had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 186.

An Act for the relief of Joseph Rosealphee Oderic Dussault.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Joseph Rosealphee Oderic Dussault, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Outremont, in the province of Quebec, contractor, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-first day of May, A.D. 1934, at the village of St-Gregoire le Grand, in the said province, he and Helene Berard, who was then of the said village, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Joseph Rosealphee Oderic Dussault and Helene Berard, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Joseph Rosealphee Oderic Dussault may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Helene Berard had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 187.

An Act for the relief of Hilda Constance Caroline Mosley Dwyer.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Hilda Constance Caroline Mosley Dwyer, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Charles Norman Dwyer, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourteenth day of November, A.D. 1934, at the city of Westmount, in the said province, she then being Hilda Constance Caroline Mosley, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Hilda Constance Caroline Mosley and Charles Norman Dwyer, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Hilda Constance Caroline Mosley may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Charles Norman Dwyer had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 188.

An Act for the relief of George Wilson Dyce.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS George Wilson Dyce, domiciled in Canada Preamble.
and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, commercial traveller, has by his petition alleged that on the third day of May, A.D. 1935, at the said city, he and Mildred Elinor Getzler, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then,
their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage
and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts
as follows:—

1. The said marriage between George Wilson Dyce and Marriage dissolved.
Mildred Elinor Getzler, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said George Wilson Dyce may at any time Right to marry again.
hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Mildred Elinor Getzler had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 189.

An Act for the relief of Henry Eaton.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Henry Eaton, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, seaman, has by his petition alleged that on the fifth day of May, A.D. 1934, at the said city, he and Alfreda Joyce Verrinder, who was then of the city of Verdun, in the said province, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Henry Eaton and Alfreda Joyce Verrinder, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Henry Eaton may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Alfreda Joyce Verrinder had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 190.

An Act for the relief of Alma Mary Hanway Eccles.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Alma Mary Hanway Eccles, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, secretary, wife of William Eccles, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-sixth day of December, A.D. 1941, at the said city, she then being Alma Mary Hanway, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Alma Mary Hanway and William Eccles, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Alma Mary Hanway may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said William Eccles had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 191.

An Act for the relief of Isabella Hodgson McRae Edwards.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Isabella Hodgson McRae Edwards, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, typist, wife of George Harold Edwards, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-third day of August, A.D. 1941, at the said city, she then being Isabella Hodgson McRae, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Isabella Hodgson McRae and George Harold Edwards, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Isabella Hodgson McRae may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said George Harold Edwards had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 192.

An Act for the relief of Fern Catherine Kerr Ekins.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Fern Catherine Kerr Ekins, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Frederick Harold Ekins, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Verdun, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-sixth day of January, A.D. 1944, at the said city of Montreal, she then being Fern Catherine Kerr, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved be evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Fern Catherine Kerr and Frederick Harold Ekins, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Fern Catherine Kerr may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Frederick Harold Ekins had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 193.

An Act for the relief of Zenobia Perrow Broadbent Emond.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Zenobia Perrow Broadbent Emond, residing at the city of Hull, in the province of Quebec, telephonist, wife of Victor Joseph Emond, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Aylmer, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twelfth day of August, A.D. 1943, at the town of Whiltington, in the county of Worcester, England, she then being Zenobia Perrow Broadbent, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Zenobia Perrow Broadbent and Victor Joseph Emond, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Zenobia Perrow Broadbent may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Victor Joseph Emond had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 194.

An Act for the relief of Livio Quintino Fantacci.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Livio Quintino Fantacci, domiciled in Preamble.
Canada and residing at the town of Piedmont, in the province of Quebec, waiter, has by his petition alleged that on the fifteenth day of March, A.D. 1928, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, he and Annita Barretta, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since
then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said
marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice
and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of
Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Livio Quintino Fantacci Marriage and Annita Barretta, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall dissolved.
be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Livio Quintino Fantacci may at any time Right to hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry again.
marry if the said marriage with the said Annita Barretta
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 195.

An Act for the relief of Francis George Isaac Fellows.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Francis George Isaac Fellows, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, salesman, has by his petition alleged that on the second day of January, A.D. 1931, at the said city, he and Jeanne Annie Mathilda Da Prato, otherwise known as Matilda Depratto, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Francis George Isaac Fellows and Jeanne Annie Mathilda Da Prato, otherwise known as Matilda Depratto, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Francis George Isaac Fellows may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Jeanne Annie Mathilda Da Prato, otherwise known as Matilda Depratto, had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 196.

An Act for the relief of Olive Viola Olsson Ferguson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Olive Viola Olsson Ferguson, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, hostess, wife of Stanley Duncan Ferguson, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifth day of November, A.D. 1932, at the said city, she then being Olive Viola Olsson, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Olive Viola Olsson and Stanley Duncan Ferguson, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Olive Viola Olsson may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Stanley Duncan Ferguson had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 197.

An Act for the relief of Muriel Aileen MacKeage Fewtrell.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Muriel Aileen MacKeage Fewtrell, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, comptometer operator, wife of Frank Albert Fewtrell, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Pointe Claire, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighth day of September, A.D. 1941, at the city of Toronto, in the province of Ontario, she then being Muriel Aileen MacKeage, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Muriel Aileen MacKeage and Frank Albert Fewtrell, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Muriel Aileen MacKeage may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Frank Albert Fewtrell had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 198.

An Act for the relief of Sophie Wener Finestone.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Sophie Wener Finestone, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, book-keeper, wife of Benny Finestone, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-fifth day of February, A.D. 1945, at the said city, she then being Sophie Wener, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Sophie Wener and Benny Finestone, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Sophie Wener may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Benny Finestone had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 199.

An Act for the relief of Mildred Lillian Flude.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Mildred Lillian Flude, residing at the city of Toronto, in the province of Ontario, waitress, wife of Albert Edward Flude, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the nineteenth day of May, A.D. 1936, at the said city of Toronto, she then being Mildred Lillian Sinclair, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Mildred Lillian Sinclair and Albert Edward Flude, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Mildred Lillian Sinclair may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Albert Edward Flude had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 200.

An Act for the relief of Richard Andrew Frame.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Richard Andrew Frame, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, foreman, has by his petition alleged that on the fourteenth day of October, A.D. 1941, at the city of Guildford, in the county of Surrey, England, he and Eva Sherman, who was then of the city of Brighton, in the county of Sussex, England, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Richard Andrew Frame and Eva Sherman, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Richard Andrew Frame may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Eva Sherman had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 201.

An Act for the relief of Louis Marcel Frigon.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Louis Marcel Frigon, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, salesman, has by his petition alleged that on the thirty-first day of January, A.D. 1933, at the said city, he and Eileen Frances Dodge, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Louis Marcel Frigon and Eileen Frances Dodge, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Louis Marcel Frigon may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Eileen Frances Dodge had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 202.

An Act for the relief of Edward Frank Fulton.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Edward Frank Fulton, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, has by his petition alleged that on the sixth day of February, A.D. 1937, at the said city, he and Rita Bourque, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Edward Frank Fulton and Rita Bourque, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Edward Frank Fulton may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Rita Bourque had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 203.

An Act for the relief of Lillian Guerasio Galardo.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Lillian Guerasio Galardo, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Dominique Galardo, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventeenth day of November, A.D. 1926, at the city of New York, in the state of New York, one of the United States of America, she then being Lillian Guerasio, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Lillian Guerasio and Dominique Galardo, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Lillian Guerasio may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Dominique Galardo had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 204.

An Act for the relief of Gertrude Loiseau Gaulin.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Gertrude Loiseau Gaulin, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, leather worker, wife of Roger Gaulin, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-sixth day of April, A.D. 1943, at the said city, she then being Gertrude Loiseau, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Gertrude Loiseau and Roger Gaulin, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Gertrude Loiseau may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Roger Gaulin had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 205.

An Act for the relief of Alderic Gemme.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Alderic Gemme, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, restaurant owner, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-sixth day of April, A.D. 1930, at the said city, he and Simone Plouffe, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Alderic Gemme and Simone Plouffe, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Alderic Gemme may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Simone Plouffe had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 206.

An Act for the relief of Ronald Edwin George.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Ronald Edwin George, domiciled in Canada Preamble. and residing at the city of Westmount, in the province of Quebec, stationary engineer, has by his petition alleged that on the ninth day of July, A.D. 1929, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, he and Isabel Sharpe Reid, who was then of the said city of Montreal, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be
dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery
have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient
that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Ronald Edwin George Marriage and Isabel Sharpe Reid, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and dissolved.
shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Ronald Edwin George may at any time Right to hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry again.
marry if the said marriage with the said Isabel Sharpe Reid
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 207.

An Act for the relief of Dorothy Kathleen Morrison Germain.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Dorothy Kathleen Morrison Germain, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, ledger-keeper, wife of Joseph Jules Andre Alexis Germain, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the sixth day of July, A.D. 1935, at the city of Ottawa, in the province of Ontario, she then being Dorothy Kathleen Morrison, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Dorothy Kathleen Morrison and Joseph Jules Andre Alexis Germain, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Dorothy Kathleen Morrison may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Joseph Jules Andre Alexis Germain had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 208.

An Act for the relief of Louis Gertsman.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Louis Gertsman, domiciled in Canada and Preamble. residing at the city of Outremont, in the province of Quebec, bailiff, has by his petition alleged that on the tenth day of November, A.D. 1934, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, he and Sylvia (Sheila) Gold, who was then of the said city of Montreal, a spinster, were married;
and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and
whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Louis Gertsman and Marriage
dissolved.
Sylvia (Sheila) Gold, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Louis Gertsman may at any time hereafter Right to
marry again.
marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Sylvia (Sheila) Gold had not
been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 209.

An Act for the relief of Louise Guiol Ghetler.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Louise Guiol Ghetler, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Harry Ghetler, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-fourth day of November, A.D. 1938, at the said city, she then being Louise Guiol, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Louise Guiol and Harry Ghetler, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Louise Guiol may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Harry Ghetler had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 210.

An Act for the relief of Mary Magee Glasheen.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Mary Magee Glasheen, residing at the Preamble village of Lakeside, in the district of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Vincent William Glasheen, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Westmount, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighth day of June, A.D.
1935, at Winchester, in the county of Southampton, England, she then being Mary Magee, a spinster; and
whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and
whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Mary Magee and Vincent Marriage dissolved.
William Glasheen, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Mary Magee may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Vincent William Glasheen had not
been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 211.

An Act for the relief of Mary Margaret Tibbins Gogo.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Mary Margaret Tibbins Gogo, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, dress maker, wife of William Francis Gogo, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the nineteenth day of December, A.D. 1935, at the town of Cornwall, in the province of Ontario, she then being Mary Margaret Tibbins, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Mary Margaret Tibbins and William Francis Gogo, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Mary Margaret Tibbins may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said William Francis Gogo had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 212.

An Act for the relief of Sheila Sydney Doner Gordon.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Sheila Sydney Doner Gordon, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Harry Gordon, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventh day of April, A.D. 1946, at the said city, she then being Sheila Sydney Doner, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Sheila Sydney Doner and Harry Gordon, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Sheila Sydney Doner may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Harry Gordon had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 213.

An Act for the relief of Evelyn May McNaught Grandison.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Evelyn May McNaught Grandison, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Oliver Richard Grandison, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-third day of January, A.D. 1933, at the said city, she then being Evelyn May McNaught, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Evelyn May McNaught and Oliver Richard Grandison, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Evelyn May McNaught may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Oliver Richard Grandison had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 214.

An Act for the relief of Rose Jacobson Greenberg.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Rose Jacobson Greenberg, residing at the Preamble.
city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Sam Greenberg, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-fourth day of October, A.D. 1943, at the said city, she then being Rose Jacobson, a spinster;
and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and
whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved
by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and
with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Rose Jacobson and Sam Marriage dissolved.
Greenberg, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Rose Jacobson may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Sam Greenberg had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 215.

An Act for the relief of Jean Gainfort Grossman.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Jean Gainfort Grossman, residing at the city of Toronto, in the province of Ontario, photographer, wife of Ralph Grossman, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventh day of August, A.D. 1943, at the village of Norwich, in the said province of Ontario, she then being Jean Gainfort, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Jean Gainfort and Ralph Grossman, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Jean Gainfort may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Ralph Grossman had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 216.

An Act for the relief of Eveline Hache Groulx.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Eveline Hache Groulx, residing at the city of Ottawa, in the province of Ontario, saleslady, wife of Lucien Groulx, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-sixth day of February, A.D. 1936, at the said city of Verdun, she then being Eveline Hache, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Eveline Hache and Lucien Groulx, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Eveline Hache may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Lucien Groulx had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 217.

An Act for the relief of Mary Alice Berrigan Hamelin.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Mary Alice Berrigan Hamelin, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, factory worker, wife of Joseph Onesime Hamelin, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the third day of January, A.D. 1933, at the city of Halifax, in the province of Nova Scotia, she then being Mary Alice Berrigan, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Mary Alice Berrigan and Joseph Onesime Hamelin, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Mary Alice Berrigan may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Joseph Onesime Hamelin had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 218.

An Act for the relief of Bertha Bercovici Hamer.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Bertha Bercovici Hamer, residing at the Preamble.
city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Melvin Lionel Hamer, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the ninth day of May, A.D. 1936, at the said city, she then being Bertha Bercovici, a spinster;
and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and
whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved
by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and
with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Bertha Bercovici and Marriage dissolved.
Melvin Lionel Hamer, her husband, is hereby dissolved,
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Bertha Bercovici may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Melvin Lionel Hamer had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 219.

An Act for the relief of Norma Elizabeth Jane Murray Hanko.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Norma Elizabeth Jane Murray Hanko, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Anton Hanko, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Longueuil, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the thirtieth day of January, A.D. 1941, at the said city of Montreal, she then being Norma Elizabeth Jane Murray, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Norma Elizabeth Jane Murray and Anton Hanko, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Norma Elizabeth Jane Murray may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Anton Hanko had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 220.

An Act for the relief of Ellen Irene Gertrude Preston Hastie.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Ellen Irene Gertrude Preston Hastie, residing Preamble.
at the village of Ormstown, in the province of Quebec, wife of John Alexander Leslie Hastie, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourth day of July, A.D. 1931, at the city of Verdun, in the said province, she then being Ellen Irene Gertrude Preston, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their
marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts
as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Ellen Irene Gertrude Marriage Preston and John Alexander Leslie Hastie, her husband, dissolved.
is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void
to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Ellen Irene Gertrude Preston may at any Right to time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry again.
marry if the said marriage with the said John Alexander Leslie Hastie had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 221.

An Act for the relief of Thomas Wynn Hayes, junior.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Thomas Wynn Hayes, junior, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, cable inspector, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-second day of September, A.D. 1930, at the said city, he and Jessie Miller Anderson, who was then of the city of Verdun, in the said province, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Thomas Wynn Hayes, junior, and Jessie Miller Anderson, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Thomas Wynn Hayes, junior, may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Jessie Miller Anderson had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 222.

An Act for the relief of Otto Hemlein.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Otto Hemlein, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, tailor, has by his petition alleged that on the fifteenth day of October, A.D. 1932, at the said city, he and Julianna Wundele, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has
prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their
marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts
as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Otto Hemlein and Julianna Marriage Wundele, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be hence- dissolved.
forth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Otto Hemlein may at any time hereafter Right to marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the marry again.
said marriage with the said Julianna Wundele had not
been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 223.

An Act for the relief of Minnie Black Herman.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Minnie Black Herman, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, filing clerk, wife of Marcus Herman, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twentieth day of March, A.D. 1946, at the said city, she then being Minnie Black, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Minnie Black and Marcus Herman, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Minnie Black may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Marcus Herman had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 224.

An Act for the relief of Thelma Lillian Dalton Hilger, otherwise known as Thelma Lillian Dalton Goernert.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Thelma Lillian Dalton Hilger, otherwise known as Thelma Lillian Dalton Goernert, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, waitress, wife of Henry Gustav Hilger, otherwise known as Henry Gustav Goernert, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-seventh day of August, A.D. 1938, at the said city, she then being Thelma Lillian Dalton, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Thelma Lillian Dalton and Henry Gustav Hilger, otherwise known as Henry Gustav Goernert, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Thelma Lillian Dalton may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Henry Gustav Hilger, otherwise known as Henry Gustav Goernert, had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 225.

An Act for the relief of Dorothy May Duff Hisey.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Dorothy May Duff Hisey, residing at the city of North Bay, in the province of Ontario, wife of Lloyd George McKay Hisey, physician, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the tenth day of May, A.D. 1941, at the city of Toronto, in the said province of Ontario, she then being Dorothy May Duff, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Dorothy May Duff and Lloyd George McKay Hisey, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Dorothy May Duff may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Lloyd George McKay Hisey had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 226.

An Act for the relief of Pearl Vesta Fields Hollenbeck.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Pearl Vesta Fields Hollenbeck, residing at Preamble.
the town of Magog, in the province of Quebec, pentographer, wife of Harold Henry Walter Hollenbeck, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at North Hatley, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventeenth day of May, A.D. 1927, at the said town of Magog, she then being Pearl Vesta Fields, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Pearl Vesta Fields and Harold Henry Walter Hollenbeck, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Pearl Vesta Fields may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Harold Henry Walter Hollenbeck had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 227.

An Act for the relief of Alfred John Holton.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Alfred John Holton, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Sherbrooke, in the province of Quebec, machinist, has by his petition alleged that on the eighteenth day of February, A.D. 1928, at the said city, he and Laurina Labrecque, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Alfred John Holton and Laurina Labrecque, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Alfred John Holton may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Laurina Labrecque had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 228.

An Act for the relief of Daniel Hudson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Daniel Hudson, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, station attendant, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-second day of February, A.D. 1940, at the said city, he and Gladys Ina Flossie Tozer, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Daniel Hudson and Gladys Ina Flossie Tozer, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Daniel Hudson may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Gladys Ina Flossie Tozer had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 229.

An Act for the relief of Elisa Jamoul Hull.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Elisa Jamoul Hull, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, milliner, wife of Norman Granville Hull, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Westmount, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twelfth day of November, A.D. 1938, at the said city of Westmount, she then being Elisa de Boissieu, a widow; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Elisa de Boissieu and Norman Granville Hull, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Elisa de Boissieu may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Norman Granville Hull had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 230.

An Act for the relief of Ruby Weldrick Hunt.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Ruby Weldrick Hunt, residing at the city of Preamble.
Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Cecil Victor Hunt, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighth day of June, A.D. 1929, at the said city, she then being Ruby Weldrick, a spinster; and whereas
by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery
since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the
said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice
and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of
Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Ruby Weldrick and Marriage Cecil Victor Hunt, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and dissolved.
shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Ruby Weldrick may at any time hereafter Right to marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the marry again.
said marriage with the said Cecil Victor Hunt had not
been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 231.

An Act for the relief of Dorothy Bradford Hurley.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Dorothy Bradford Hurley, residing at the city of Lachine, in the province of Quebec, typist, wife of Howard Densimore Hurley, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Arvida, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-fourth day of February, A.D. 1941, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, she then being Dorothy Bradford, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Dorothy Bradford and Howard Densimore Hurley, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Dorothy Bradford may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Howard Densimore Hurley had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 232.

An Act for the relief of Annie Lucy Hurteau.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Annie Lucy Hurteau, residing at the village of Gatineau Mills, in the province of Quebec, wife of William Hurteau, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Hull, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twentieth day of June, A.D. 1922, at the town of Pembroke, in the province of Ontario, she then being Annie Lucy Laporte, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Annie Lucy Laporte and William Hurteau, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Annie Lucy Laporte may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said William Hurteau had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 233.

An Act for the relief of Margaret Joan Anstey Steven Hyslop.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Margaret Joan Anstey Steven Hyslop, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Henry Irving Hyslop, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventh day of September, A.D. 1945, at the city of Westmount, in the said province, she then being Margaret Joan Anstey Steven, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Margaret Joan Anstey Steven and Henry Irving Hyslop, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Margaret Joan Anstey Steven may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Henry Irving Hyslop had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., R.A., L.Ph..
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 234.

An Act for the relief of Sheila Marcus Issenman.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Sheila Marcus Issenman, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Arnold Issenman, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the ninth day of March, A.D. 1941, at the said city, she then being Sheila Marcus, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Sheila Marcus and Arnold Issenman, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Sheila Marcus may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Arnold Issenman had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 235.

An Act for the relief of Dorothy Mary Boyce Jackson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Dorothy Mary Boyce Jackson, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, waitress, wife of Charles Henry Jackson, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourth day of September, A.D. 1943, at the city of Westmount, in the said province, she then being Dorothy Mary Boyce, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Dorothy Mary Boyce and Charles Henry Jackson, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Dorothy Mary Boyce may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Charles Henry Jackson had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 236.

An Act for the relief of Robert Thomas Jackson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Robert Thomas Jackson, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Westmount, in the province of Quebec, manager, has by his petition alleged that on the nineteenth day of August, A.D. 1929, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, he and Ruth Laurie Bender, who was then of the said city of Montreal, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Robert Thomas Jackson and Ruth Laurie Bender, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Robert Thomas Jackson may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Ruth Laurie Bender had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 237.

An Act for the relief of Sarah Rafferty Jackson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Sarah Rafferty Jackson, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Lawrence Jackson, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighth day of April, A.D. 1940, at the said city, she then being Sarah Rafferty, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Sarah Rafferty and Lawrence Jackson, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Sarah Rafferty may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Lawrence Jackson had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 238.

An Act for the relief of Aime Jacques.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Aime Jacques, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, bus driver, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-sixth day of March, A.D. 1925, at the said city, he and Regina Morin, who was then of the said city, a spinster,
were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed
that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery
have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient
that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Aime Jacques and Regina Marriage dissolved.
Morin, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Aime Jacques may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Regina Morin had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 239.

An Act for the relief of Paul Jaeggin.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Paul Jaeggin, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, manager, has by his petition alleged that on the fourth day of November, A.D. 1930, at the said city, he and Doris Mae Harvey Johnston, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Paul Jaeggin and Doris Mae Harvey Johnston, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Paul Jaeggin may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Doris Mae Harvey Johnston has not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 240.

An Act for the relief of George William Curtis Johnson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS George William Curtis Johnson, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, has by his petition alleged that on the twentieth day of June, A.D. 1931, at the city of Lachine, in the said province, he and Mary Elizabeth Geraldine Parsons, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between George William Curtis Johnson and Mary Elizabeth Geraldine Parsons, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said George William Curtis Johnson may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Mary Elizabeth Geraldine Parsons had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 241.

An Act for the relief of Elsie Marlyn Garayt Johnston.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Elsie Marlyn Garayt Johnston, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of William Daniel Johnston, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the second day of June, A.D. 1927, at the said city, she then being Elsie Marlyn Garayt, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Elsie Marlyn Garayt and William Daniel Johnston, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Elsie Marlyn Garayt may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said William Daniel Johnston had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 242.

An Act for the relief of Frances Alice Egg Johnston, otherwise known as Frances Alice Egg Willey Johnston.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Frances Alice Egg Johnston, otherwise known as Frances Alice Egg Willey Johnston, residing at the city of Sherbrooke, in the province of Quebec, dress-maker, wife of Lloyd Milford Johnston, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the village of Bulwer, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the tenth day of September, A.D. 1932, at the village of Knowlton, in the said province, she then being Frances Alice Egg, otherwise known as Frances Alice Egg Willey, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Frances Alice Egg, otherwise known as Frances Alice Egg Willey, and Lloyd Milford Johnston, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Frances Alice Egg, otherwise known as Frances Alice Egg Willey, may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Lloyd Milford Johnston had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 243.

An Act for the relief of Pamela Mackay Alderdice Johnstone.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Pamela Mackay Alderdice Johnstone, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of George Murray Gordon Johnstone, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the third day of December, A.D. 1935, at the city of New York, in the state of New York, one of the United States of America, she then being Pamela Mackay Alderdice, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Pamela Mackay Alderdice and George Murray Gordon Johnstone, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Pamela Mackay Alderdice may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said George Murray Gordon Johnstone had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 244.

An Act for the relief of John Bernth Jones, otherwise known as John Berth Jones.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS John Bernth Jones, otherwise known as John Berth Jones, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, boiler maker, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-eighth day of June, A.D. 1932, at the said city, he and Annie May Garnett, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between John Bernth Jones, otherwise known as John Berth Jones, and Annie May Garnett, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said John Bernth Jones, otherwise known as John Berth Jones, may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Annie May Garnett had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 245.

An Act for the relief of John William Sydney Jordan.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS John William Sydney Jordan, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, elevator operator, has by his petition alleged that on the sixth day of August, A.D. 1936, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, he and Lillian Lacroix, who was then of the said city of Montreal, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between John William Sydney Jordan and Lillian Lacroix, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said John William Sydney Jordan may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Lillian Lacroix had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 246.

An Act for the relief of Ernest Edward Joslin.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Ernest Edward Joslin, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, machinist, has by his petition alleged that on the sixth day of November, A.D. 1926, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, he and Jennie Elizabeth Holding, who was then of the said city of Montreal, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Ernest Edward Joslin and Jennie Elizabeth Holding, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Ernest Edward Joslin may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Jennie Elizabeth Holding had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 247.

An Act for the relief of Elly Zahn Kaminsky.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Elly Zahn Kaminsky, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, printer, wife of Carli Kaminsky, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifth day of November, A.D. 1932, at the said city, she then being Elly Zahn, a widow; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Elly Zahn and Carli Kaminsky, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Elly Zahn may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Carli Kaminsky had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 248.

An Act for the relief of Irene Laflamme Kattas.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Irene Laflamme Kattas, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, seamstress, wife of Michel Kattas, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighteenth day of January, A.D. 1943, at the said city, she then being Irene Laflamme, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Irene Laflamme and Michel Kattas, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Irene Laflamme may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Michel Kattas had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 249.

An Act for the relief of Minnie Braimaster Kazarensky.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Minnie Braimaster Kazarensky, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, dressmaker, wife of Aron Kazarensky, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the second day of May, A.D. 1935, at the said city, she then being Minnie Braimaster Frischman, a widow; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Minnie Braimaster Frischman and Aron Kazarensky, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Minnie Braimaster Frischman may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Aron Kazarensky had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 250.

An Act for the relief of Charles Alfred Michel Kelly.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Charles Alfred Michel Kelly, domiciled in Preamble.
Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, chauffeur, has by his petition alleged that on the sixteenth day of September, A.D. 1933, at the said city, he and Marie Irene May Reed, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since
then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said
marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Charles Alfred Michel Marriage Kelly and Marie Irene May Reed, his wife, is hereby dissolved.
dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents
and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Charles Alfred Michel Kelly may at any Right to time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry again.
marry if the said marriage with the said Marie Irene May Reed had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 251.

An Act for the relief of Mary Margaret Bernice Walker Kennedy.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble

WHEREAS Mary Margaret Bernice Walker Kennedy, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Robert John Kennedy, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Ste. Agathe des Monts, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the ninth day of August, A.D. 1939, at the said city, she then being Mary Margaret Bernice Walker, a spinster; that on the fourteenth day of August, A.D. 1939, at the said city, they were married again; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriages be dissolved; and whereas the said marriages and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriages dissolved.

1. The said marriages between Mary Margaret Bernice Walker and Robert John Kennedy, her husband, are hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Mary Margaret Bernice Walker may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriages with the said Robert John Kennedy had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 252.

An Act for the relief of Adele Brown Kerkofsky.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Adele Brown Kerkofsky, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, manicurist, wife of Jack Kerkofsky, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eleventh day of March, A.D. 1945, at the said city, she then being Adele Brown, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Adele Brown and Jack Kerkofsky, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Adele Brown may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Jack Kerkofsky had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 253.

An Act for the relief of Eileen Francis Murphy Kerson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Eileen Francis Murphy Kerson, residing at the town of Mount Royal, in the province of Quebec, secretary, wife of Murray S. Kerson, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said town, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-first day of June, A.D. 1941, at the city of Quebec, in the said province, she then being Eileen Francis Murphy, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Eileen Francis Murphy and Murray S. Kerson, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Eileen Francis Murphy may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Murray S. Kerson had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 254.

An Act for the relief of James Alexander King.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS James Alexander King, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, hospital attendant, has by his petition alleged that on the thirtieth day of July, A.D. 1923, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, he and Edith Anne Halbert, who was then of the said city of Montreal, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between James Alexander King and Edith Anne Halbert, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said James Alexander King may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Edith Anne Halbert had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 255.

An Act for the relief of Robert Crawford Kirk.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Robert Crawford Kirk, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, plumber, has by his petition alleged that on the twentieth day of July, A.D. 1940, at the city of Arvida, in the said province, he and Winifred May Robinson, who was then of the said city of Verdun, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Robert Crawford Kirk and Winifred May Robinson, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Robert Crawford Kirk may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Winifred May Robinson had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 256.

An Act for the relief of Eugene Klein.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Eugene Klein, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, shipper, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-fourth day of March, A.D. 1936, at the said city, he and Claire Leduc, who was then of the said city, a spinster,
were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed
that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery
have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient
that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Eugene Klein and Claire Marriage Leduc, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth dissolved.
null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Eugene Klein may at any time hereafter Right to marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the marry again.
said marriage with the said Claire Leduc had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 257.

An Act for the relief of Peggy Alicia Stilwell Kneeland.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Peggy Alicia Stilwell Kneeland, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Ellward Winslow Kneeland, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Morin Heights, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighteenth day of April, A.D. 1942, at Worcester Park, in the county of Surrey, England, she then being Peggy Alicia Stilwell, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Peggy Alicia Stilwell and Ellward Winslow Kneeland, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Peggy Alicia Stilwell may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Ellward Winslow Kneeland had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 258.

An Act for the relief of Doris Shapiro Kolman.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Doris Shapiro Kolman, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, manicurist, wife of Volodia Kolman, otherwise known as Willie Colman, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventeenth day of December, A.D. 1932, at the said city, she then being Doris Shapiro, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Doris Shapiro and Volodia Kolman, otherwise known as Willie Colman, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Doris Shapiro may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Volodia Kolman, otherwise known as Willie Colman, had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 259.

An Act for the relief of Margaret Hazel Reid Koppel.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Margaret Hazel Reid Koppel, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, stenographer, wife of Sidney Robert Koppel, confectioner, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Westmount, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eleventh day of November, A.D. 1930, at the said city of Montreal, she then being Margaret Hazel Reid, a spinster; that on the twelfth day of November, A.D. 1930, at Howick, in the district of Beauharnois, in the said province, they were married again; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriages be dissolved; and whereas the said marriages and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriages dissolved.

1. The said marriages between Margaret Hazel Reid and Sidney Robert Koppel, her husband, are, respectively, hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Margaret Hazel Reid may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriages with the said Sidney Robert Koppel had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 260.

An Act for the relief of Christos C. Koukouvelis.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Christos C. Koukouvelis, domiciled in Canada Preamble.
and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, merchant, has by his petition alleged that on the sixth day of October, A.D. 1940, at the said city, he and Georgia J. Mastrahas, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and
whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved
by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons
of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Christos C. Koukouvelis Marriage and Georgia J. Mastrahas, his wife, is hereby dissolved, dissolved.
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Christos C. Koukouvelis may at any time Right to hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry again.
marry if the said marriage with the said Georgia J.
Mastrahas had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 261.

An Act for the relief of Frances Audrey Gray Lacaille.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Frances Audrey Gray Lacaille, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Charles Wilson Lacaille, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighth day of May, A.D. 1941, at the town of Oyster Bay, in the state of New York, one of the United States of America, she then being Frances Audrey Gray, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Frances Audrey Gray and Charles Wilson Lacaille, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Frances Audrey Gray may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Charles Wilson Lacaille had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 262.

An Act for the relief of Gaston Dorval Lachance.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Gaston Dorval Lachance, domiciled in Preamble.
Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, locomotive fireman, has by his petition alleged that on the seventh day of September, A.D. 1937, at the city of Rouyn, in the said province, he and Evelyn McCaffrey, who was then of the said city of Rouyn, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has
prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their
marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as
follows:—

1. The said marriage between Gaston Dorval Lachance Marriage dissolved. and Evelyn McCaffrey, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Gaston Dorval Lachance may at any time Right to marry again.
hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry
if the said marriage with the said Evelyn McCaffrey had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 263.

An Act for the relief of Marjorie Aileen Copping Ladouceur.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Marjorie Aileen Copping Ladouceur, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, school teacher, wife of Lionel Felix Ladouceur, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-ninth day of June, A.D. 1933, at Lachute, in the said province, she then being Marjorie Aileen Copping, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Marjorie Aileen Copping and Lionel Felix Ladouceur, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Marjorie Aileen Copping may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Lionel Felix Ladouceur had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 264.

An Act for the relief of Olivier Pierre Bernard Lagueux.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Olivier Pierre Bernard Lagueux, domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Buckingham, in the province of Quebec, civil engineer, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-fourth day of February, A.D. 1931, at the city of Quebec, in the said province, he and Mary Bridgit Smith, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Olivier Pierre Bernard Lagueux and Mary Bridgit Smith, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Olivier Pierre Bernard Lagueux may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Mary Bridgit Smith had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 265.

An Act for the relief of Elizabeth Butler Roberts Lambton.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Elizabeth Butler Roberts Lambton, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of James Douglas Lambton, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the third day of September, A.D. 1929, at the said city, she then being Elizabeth Butler Roberts, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Elizabeth Butler Roberts and James Douglas Lambton, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Elizabeth Butler Roberts may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said James Douglas Lambton had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 266.

An Act for the relief of Charles James Langevin.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Charles James Langevin, domiciled in Canada Preamble. and residing at Lake Beauport, in the province of Quebec, labourer, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-second day of May, A.D. 1943, at the city of Quebec, in the said province, he and Elizabeth Ann Kelly, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and
whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and
whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved
by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons
of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Charles James Langevin Marriage dissolved. and Elizabeth Ann Kelly, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Charles James Langevin may at any time Right to marry again.
hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry
if the said marriage with the said Elizabeth Ann Kelly
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 267.

An Act for the relief of Aline Theoret Larose.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Aline Theoret Larose, residing at St. Dorothee, in the province of Quebec, housekeeper, wife of Joseph Larose, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Plage Laval, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-fifth day of July, A.D. 1936, at St. Joseph du Lac, in the district of Terrebonne, in the said province, she then being Aline Theoret, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Aline Theoret and Joseph Larose, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Aline Theoret may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Joseph Larose had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 268.

An Act for the relief of Elmon Parker Law.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Elmon Parker Law, domiciled in Canada Preamble and residing at the village of Sawyerville, in the district of St. Francis, in the province of Quebec, automobile mechanic, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-second day of June, A.D. 1927, at Randboro, in the said district, he and Viola Fern Marlin, a spinster, were married;
and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and
whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved
by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and
with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Elmon Parker Law and Marriage Viola Fern Marlin, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall dissolved.
be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Elmon Parker Law may at any time hereafter Right to marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the marry again.
said marriage with the said Viola Fern Marlin had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 269.

An Act for the relief of Alsye Mae Lissemore Lawrence.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble

WHEREAS Alsye Mae Lissemore Lawrence, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, waitress, wife of Edward William Lawrence, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Verdun, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the ninth day of August, A.D. 1941, at the city of Westmount, in the said province, she then being Alsye Mae Lissemore, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved

1. The said marriage between Alsye Mae Lissemore and Edward William Lawrence, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Alsye Mae Lissemore may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Edward William Lawrence had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 270.

An Act for the relief of Frances Clare Lynch Layton.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Frances Clare Lynch Layton, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, secretary, wife of Irving Layton, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the thirteenth day of September, A.D. 1938, at the city of Saint John, in the province of New Brunswick, she then being Frances Clare Lynch, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Frances Clare Lynch and Irving Layton, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Frances Clare Lynch may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Irving Layton had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 271.

An Act for the relief of Hilda Irene Gordon Lazarus.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Hilda Irene Gordon Lazarus, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, stenographer, wife of Lester Benjamin Lazarus, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-third day of April, A.D. 1944, at the said city, she then being Hilda Irene Gordon, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Hilda Irene Gordon and Lester Benjamin Lazarus, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Hilda Irene Gordon may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Lester Benjamin Lazarus had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 272.

An Act for the relief of Olive Lever Sanborn Lead.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Olive Lever Sanborn Lead, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, teacher, wife of Harry Dickinson Lead, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-eighth day of June, A.D. 1941, at the said city, she then being Olive Lever Sanborn, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Olive Lever Sanborn and Harry Dickinson Lead, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Olive Lever Sanborn may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Harry Dickinson Lead had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 273.

An Act for the relief of Roger Lebeau.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Roger Lebeau, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, chief clerk, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-seventh day of June, A.D. 1935, at the said city, he and Annette Chouinard, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Roger Lebeau and Annette Chouinard, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Roger Lebeau may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Annette Chouinard had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 274.

An Act for the relief of Isabel Mercer Lebœuf.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Isabel Mercer Lebœuf, residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, stock-keeper, wife of Romeo Joseph Lebœuf, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the first day of October, A.D. 1931, at the town of Greenfield Park, in the said province, she then being Isabel Mercer, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Isabel Mercer and Romeo Joseph Lebœuf, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Isabel Mercer may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Romeo Joseph Lebœuf had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 275.

An Act for the relief of Netta Cheyne Lee.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Netta Cheyne Lee, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Harold Michael Lee, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Verdun, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventeenth day of May, A.D. 1941, at the said city of Montreal, she then being Netta Cheyne, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Netta Cheyne and Harold Michael Lee, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Netta Cheyne may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Harold Michael Lee had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 276.

An Act for the relief of Thelma Genender Lefkowitz.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Thelma Genender Lefkowitz, residing at Preamble.
the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, saleslady, wife of Bernard Lefkowitz, merchant, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the first day of January, A.D. 1941, at the said city, she then being Thelma Genender, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their
marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as
follows:—

1. The said marriage between Thelma Genender and Marriage Bernard Lefkowitz, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and dissolved.
shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Thelma Genender may at any time hereafter Right to marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marry again.
marriage with the said Bernard Lefkowitz had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 277.

An Act for the relief of Adele Kuznetz Lesser.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Adele Kuznetz Lesser, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Myer Lesser, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourth day of January, A.D. 1942, at the said city, she then being Adele Kuznetz, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Adele Kuznetz and Myer Lesser, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Adele Kuznetz may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Myer Lesser had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 278.

An Act for the relief of Bea Helen Taffert Levin.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Bea Helen Taffert Levin, residing at the Preamble. city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, store keeper, wife of Emmanuel Jack Levin, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the tenth day of June,
A.D. 1925, at the said city, she then being Bea Helen Taffert,
a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that,
because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that
the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty,
by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House
of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Bea Helen Taffert and Marriage dissolved.
Emmanuel Jack Levin, her husband, is hereby dissolved,
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Bea Helen Taffert may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Emmanuel Jack Levin had not
been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 279.

An Act for the relief of Elizabeth Anne Eden Lindsay.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Elizabeth Anne Eden Lindsay, residing at the city of Westmount, in the province of Quebec, wife of Jeffrey Burland Lindsay, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-eighth day of June, A.D. 1946, at the said city of Westmount, she then being Elizabeth Anne Eden, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Elizabeth Anne Eden and Jeffrey Burland Lindsay, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Elizabeth Anne Eden may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Jeffrey Burland Lindsay had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 280.

An Act for the relief of Ernest Edward Lippiatt.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Ernest Edward Lippiatt, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, shipper, has by his petition alleged that on the fourteenth day of February, A.D. 1936, at the town of Buckingham, in the said province, he and Verna Ethel Banning, who was then of Thurso, in the said province, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Ernest Edward Lippiatt and Verna Ethel Banning, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Ernest Edward Lippiatt may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Verna Ethel Banning had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 281.

An Act for the relief of Una Kathleen Balmfirth Little.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Una Kathleen Balmfirth Little, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, secretary, wife of Howard Demar Little, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighteenth day of July, A.D. 1939, at the said city, she then being Una Kathleen Balmfirth, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Una Kathleen Balmfirth and Howard Demar Little, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Una Kathleen Balmfirth may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Howard Demar Little had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 282.

An Act for the relief of Robert Rosaire Loiselle.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Robert Rosaire Loiselle, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, has by his petition alleged that on the first day of July, A.D. 1941, at the said city, he and Marie Jeanne Agnes Lapointe, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Robert Rosaire Loiselle and Marie Jeanne Agnes Lapointe, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Robert Rosaire Loiselle may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Marie Jeanne Agnes Lapointe had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 283.

An Act for the relief of John Luchuck.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS John Luchuck, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Lachine, in the province of Quebec, soldier, has by his petition alleged that on the ninth day of August, A.D. 1941, at the said city, he and Alice Medinsky, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between John Luchuck and Alice Medinsky, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said John Luchuck may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Alice Medinsky had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 284.

An Act for the relief of Robert Lussier.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Robert Lussier, domiciled in Canada and Preamble. residing at the village of St. Joseph, in the district of St. Hyacinthe, in the province of Quebec, radio technician, has by his petition alleged that on the fifteenth day of June, A.D. 1922, at the city of St. Hyacinthe, in the said province, he and Laure Armande Chicoine, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery
since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the
said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice
and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of
Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Robert Lussier and Laure Marriage Armande Chicoine, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall dissolved.
be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Robert Lussier may at any time hereafter Right to marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the marry again.
said marriage with the said Laure Armande Chicoine had
not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 285.

An Act for the relief of Evelyn Ethel May Reich Macdonell.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Evelyn Ethel May Reich Macdonell, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Angus Ronald Macdonell, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifth day of July, A.D. 1941, at the said city, she then being Evelyn Ethel May Reich, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Evelyn Ethel May Reich and Angus Ronald Macdonell, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Evelyn Ethel May Reich may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Angus Ronald Macdonell had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 286.

An Act for the relief of Arthur Haigh MacGill.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Arthur Haigh MacGill, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, fireman, has by his petition alleged that on the fifth day of September, A.D. 1924, at the city of Westmount, in the said province, he and Margaret McAffer, who was then of the said city of Montreal, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Arthur Haigh MacGill and Margaret McAffer, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Arthur Haigh MacGill may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Margaret McAffer had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 287.

An Act for the relief of Frances Eileen Scribner Mackay.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Frances Eileen Scribner Mackay, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of George Gordon Mackay, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the thirtieth day of October, A.D. 1924, at the town of Chatham, in the province of New Brunswick, she then being Frances Eileen Scribner, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Frances Eileen Scribner and George Gordon Mackay, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Frances Eileen Scribner may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said George Gordon Mackay had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 288.

An Act for the relief of Lillian May Alsop Mackenzie.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Lillian May Alsop Mackenzie, residing at Preamble.
the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, book-binder, wife of John Macammon Mackenzie, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifteenth day of June, A.D. 1929, at the city of Verdun, in the said province, she then being Lillian May Alsop, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and
whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved
by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer
of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Lillian May Alsop and Marriage dissolved.
John Macammon Mackenzie, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Lillian May Alsop may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said John Macammon Mackenzie had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 289.

An Act for the relief of John Mackie.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS John Mackie, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, stock-keeper, has by his petition alleged that on the second day of July, A.D. 1942, at the town of Pembroke, in the province of Ontario, he and Mary Louise Ethier, who was then of the town of Petawawa, in the said province of Ontario, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between John Mackie and Mary Louise Ethier, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said John Mackie may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Mary Louise Ethier had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 290.

An Act for the relief of Jessie Gertrude Noel Magee.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Jessie Gertrude Noel Magee, residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Francis John Magee, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the first day of August, A.D. 1942, at the said city, she then being Jessie Gertrude Noel, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Jessie Gertrude Noel and Francis John Magee, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Jessie Gertrude Noel may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Francis John Magee had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 291.

An Act for the relief of Jessie Goodis Markis.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Jessie Goodis Markis, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Harold Markis, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-fourth day of December, A.D. 1939, at the said city, she then being Jessie Goodis, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Jessie Goodis and Harold Markis, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Jessie Goodis may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Harold Markis had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 292.

An Act for the relief of Eleanor Edith McKechnie Martineau.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Eleanor Edith McKechnie Martineau, Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Raymond Davies Martineau, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Westmount, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifteenth day of August, A.D. 1942, at the said city of Montreal, she then being Eleanor Edith McKechnie; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery
have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Eleanor Edith McKechnie Marriage and Raymond Davies Martineau, her husband, is hereby dissolved.
dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all
intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Eleanor Edith McKechnie may at any time Right to hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry marry again.
if the said marriage with the said Raymond Davies
Martineau had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 293.

An Act for the relief of Marie Irene Joly Martineau.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Marie Irene Joly Martineau, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, house-keeper, wife of Joseph Charles Auguste Martineau, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twelfth day of January, A.D. 1920, at the said city, she then being Marie Irene Joly, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Marie Irene Joly and Joseph Charles Auguste Martineau, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Marie Irene Joly may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Joseph Charles Auguste Martineau had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 294.

An Act for the relief of Grace Emily Dawes Matheson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Grace Emily Dawes Matheson, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, nurse, wife of Robert Alexander Matheson, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the second day of November, A.D. 1935, at the said city, she then being Grace Emily Dawes, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Grace Emily Dawes and Robert Alexander Matheson, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Grace Emily Dawes may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Robert Alexander Matheson had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 295.

An Act for the relief of Henry Thomas Matthews.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Henry Thomas Matthews, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, publicist, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-eighth day of December, A.D. 1940, at the said city, he and Georgina Lund McCallum, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Henry Thomas Matthews and Georgina Lund McCallum, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Henry Thomas Matthews may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Georgina Lund McCallum had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 296.

An Act for the relief of Mabel Grace Mattinson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Mabel Grace Mattinson, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, secretary, wife of Arthur Steel Mattinson, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the nineteenth day of August, A.D. 1941, at the said city, she then being Mabel Grace Edwardson, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Mabel Grace Edwardson and Arthur Steel Mattinson, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Mabel Grace Edwardson may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Arthur Steel Mattinson had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 297.

An Act for the relief of Ruby Campbell Matts.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Ruby Campbell Matts, residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, stenographer, wife of John Peter Matts, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the sixth day of June, A.D. 1936, at the said city, she then being Ruby Campbell, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Ruby Campbell and John Peter Matts, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Ruby Campbell may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said John Peter Matts had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 298.

An Act for the relief of Michael Maturjiw, otherwise known as Michal Matwijow.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Michael Maturjiw, otherwise known as Michal Matwijow, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-sixth day of May, A.D. 1929, at the said city, he and Justyna Kowalska, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Michael Maturjiw, otherwise known as Michal Matwijow and Justyna Kowalska, otherwise known as Tina Kowalska, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Michael Maturjiw, otherwise known as Michal Matwijow, may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Justyna Kowalska, otherwise known as Tina Kowalska, had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 299.

An Act for the relief of Elly Maria Charlotte Alden McBride.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Elly Maria Charlotte Alden McBride, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, office manager, wife of Donald Chester McBride, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-second day of August, A.D. 1931 at the said city, she then being Elly Maria Charlotte Alden, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Elly Maria Charlotte Alden and Donald Chester McBride, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Elly Maria Charlotte Alden may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Donald Chester McBride had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 300.

An Act for the relief of Charles Frederick McDowall.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Charles Frederick McDowall, domiciled in Preamble.
Canada and residing at the city of Westmount, in the province of Quebec, engineer, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-second day of April, A.D. 1935, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, he and Yvonne Elizabeth Amelia Tutill, who was then of the said city of Montreal, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Charles Frederick McDowall and Yvonne Elizabeth Amelia Tutill, his wife, Marriage dissolved.
is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Charles Frederick McDowall may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Yvonne Elizabeth Amelia Tutill had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 301.

An Act for the relief of Marion Naomi Gomery McGee.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Marion Naomi Gomery McGee, residing at the town of Montreal West, in the province of Quebec, wife of Leonard Davidson McGee, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourteenth day of September, A.D. 1935, at the said town, she then being Marion Naomi Gomery, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Marion Naomi Gomery and Leonard Davidson McGee, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Marion Naomi Gomery may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Leonard Davidson McGee had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 302.

An Act for the relief of Evelyn Marie Elliott McGrath.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Evelyn Marie Elliott McGrath, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, operator, wife of John Anthony McGrath, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twelfth day of June, A.D. 1943, at the city of Outremont, in the said province, she then being Evelyn Marie Elliott, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Evelyn Marie Elliott and John Anthony McGrath, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Evelyn Marie Elliott may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said John Anthony McGrath had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 303.

An Act for the relief of Katie Rhoda Brick McGrath.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Katie Rhoda Brick McGrath, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, secretary, wife of Donald King McGrath, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-ninth day of May, A.D. 1940, at the said city, she then being Katie Rhoda Brick, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Katie Rhoda Brick and Donald King McGrath, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Katie Rhoda Brick may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Donald King McGrath had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 304.

An Act for the relief of Clair Reginald McLaughlin.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Clair Reginald McLaughlin, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, furniture dealer, has by his petition alleged that on the tenth day of October, A.D. 1928, at the city of St. Johns, in the said province, he and Beryl Orpha Skeates, who was then of the district of Iberville, in the said province, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Clair Reginald McLaughlin and Beryl Orpha Skeates, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Clair Reginald McLaughlin may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Beryl Orpha Skeates had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 305.

An Act for the relief of Doris Louise Dickson McMurray.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Doris Louise Dickson McMurray, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, secretary, wife of William Gurnett McMurray, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifteenth day of October, A.D. 1938, at the city of Winnipeg, in the province of Manitoba, she then being Doris Louise Dickson, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Doris Louise Dickson and William Gurnett McMurray, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Doris Louise Dickson may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said William Gurnett McMurray had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 306.

An Act for the relief of William John Edgar McVetty.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS William John Edgar McVetty, domiciled in Canada and residing at the township of Eaton, in the province of Quebec, farmer, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-eighth day of June, A.D. 1933, at the village of Sawyerville, in the said province, he and Verna Grace Hood, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between William John Edgar McVetty and Verna Grace Hood, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said William John Edgar McVetty may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Verna Grace Hood had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 307.

An Act for the relief of Joseph Alexander Oswald Mercier.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Joseph Alexander Oswald Mercier, domiciled in Canada and residing at Woodlands, in the province of Quebec, telegraph operator, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-third day of June, A.D. 1920, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, he and Rita Anna Ferguson, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Joseph Alexander Oswald Mercier and Rita Anna Ferguson, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Joseph Alexander Oswald Mercier may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Rita Anna Ferguson had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 308.

An Act for the relief of Leone Rhea Leduc Metcalf.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Leone Rhea Leduc Metcalf, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, house-keeper, wife of James Charles Harvey Metcalf, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the sixteenth day of December, A.D. 1942, at the city of Lachine, in the said province, she then being Leone Rhea Leduc, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Leone Rhea Leduc and James Charles Harvey Metcalf, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Leone Rhea Leduc may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said James Charles Harvey Metcalf had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 309.

An Act for the relief of Maurice Michael.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Maurice Michael, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, manufacturer, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-fifth day of September, A.D. 1932, at the said city, he and Rachel Elias, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Maurice Michael and Rachel Elias, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Maurice Michael may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Rachel Elias had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 310.

An Act for the relief of Edith Dean Michaels.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Edith Dean Michaels, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Samuel Michaels, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twentieth day of October, A.D. 1926, at Wallasey, in the district of Birkenhead, England, she then being Edith Dean, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Edith Dean and Samuel Michaels, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Edith Dean may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Samuel Michaels had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 311.

An Act for the relief of Claire Morgan Lockner Middleton-Hope.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Claire Morgan Lockner Middleton-Hope, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Clark Middleton-Hope, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighth day of June, A.D. 1942, at the city of Westmount, in the said province, she then being Claire Morgan Lockner, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Claire Morgan Lockner and Clark Middleton-Hope, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Claire Morgan Lockner may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Clark Middleton-Hope had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 312.

An Act for the relief of Ann Bogdanof Millichamp.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Ann Bogdanof Millichamp, residing at the town of St. Lambert Annex, in the district of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, hairdresser, wife of John Millichamp, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Westmount, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-third day of July, A.D. 1941, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, she then being Ann Bogdanof, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Ann Bogdanof and John Millichamp, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Ann Bogdanof may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said John Millichamp had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 313.

An Act for the relief of Dallas Sara Barnes Millington.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Dallas Sara Barnes Millington, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Carl Peter Millington, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the first day of January, A.D. 1941, at the town of Hawkesbury, in the province of Ontario, she then being Dallas Sara Barnes, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Dallas Sara Barnes and Carl Peter Millington, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Dallas Sara Barnes may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Carl Peter Millington had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 314.

An Act for the relief of Anne Fishman Minsk.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Anne Fishman Minsk, residing at the city of Preamble.
Montreal, in the province of Quebec, switch-board operator, wife of Louis Minsk, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-first day of December,
A.D. 1941, at the said city, she then being Anne Fishman,
a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that,
because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Anne Fishman and Louis Marriage dissolved.
Minsk, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Anne Fishman may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Louis Minsk had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 315.

An Act for the relief of Edith Oberfeld Mintz.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Edith Oberfeld Mintz, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of David Mintz, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Outremont, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the thirtieth day of November, A.D. 1941, at the said city of Montreal, she then being Edith Oberfeld, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Edith Oberfeld and David Mintz, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall henceforth be null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Edith Oberfeld may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said David Mintz had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 316.

An Act for the relief of Alexander Monteith.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Alexander Monteith, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, chemist, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-second day of October, A.D. 1931, at Bolton Abbey, in the county of York, England, he and Vera Irene Price, who was then of the county of Middlesex, England, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Alexander Monteith and Vera Irene Price, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved

2. The said Alexander Monteith may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Vera Irene Price had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 317.

An Act for the relief of Omer Montpetit, junior.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Omer Montpetit, junior, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, butcher, has by his petition alleged that on the seventeenth day of September, A.D. 1934, at the city of Sorel, in the said province, he and Simone Lamothe, who was then of the said city of Sorel, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Omer Montpetit, junior, and Simone Lamothe, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Omer Montpetit, junior, may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Simone Lamothe had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 318.

An Act for the relief of Thomas Walter John Moon.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Thomas Walter John Moon, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, airman, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-eighth day of June, A.D. 1941, at the said city, he and Inger Maria Barentson, who was then of the city of Outremont, in the said province, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Thomas Walter John Moon and Inger Maria Barentson, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Thomas Walter John Moon may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Inger Maria Barentson had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 319.

An Act for the relief of Evelyn Deltoff Moore.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Evelyn Deltoff Moore, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, waitress, wife of Walter Moore, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the tenth day of August, A.D. 1937, at the city of Toronto, in the province of Ontario, she then being Evelyn Deltoff, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Evelyn Deltoff and Walter Moore, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Evelyn Deltoff may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Walter Moore had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 320.

An Act for the relief of Elsie King Moorhouse.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Elsie King Moorhouse, residing at the city of Halifax, in the province of Nova Scotia, red cross worker, wife of Arthur Moorhouse, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the second day of April, A.D. 1929, at the said city of Halifax, she then being Elsie King, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Elsie King and Arthur Moorhouse, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Elsie King may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Arthur Moorhouse had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 321.

An Act for the relief of Theresa Sherpitis Morganti.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Theresa Sherpitis Morganti, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Mieczystaw Morganti, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the thirtieth day of June, A.D. 1934, at the said city, she then being Theresa Sherpitis, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Theresa Sherpitis and Mieczystaw Morganti, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Theresa Sherpitis may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Mieczystaw Morganti had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 322.

An Act for the relief of Peter Moroz, otherwise known as Peter Morris.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Peter Moroz, otherwise known as Peter Morris, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, salesman, has by his petition alleged that on the fifteenth day of July, A.D. 1933, at the said city, he and Mary Didych, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Peter Moroz, otherwise known as Peter Morris, and Mary Didych, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Peter Moroz, otherwise known as Peter Morris, may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Mary Didych had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 323.

An Act for the relief of Pamela Mary Gottschalk Muckell.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Pamela Mary Gottschalk Muckell, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of James William Muckell, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the first day of April, A.D. 1942, in the county of London, England, she then being Pamela Mary Gottschalk, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Pamela Mary Gottschalk and James William Muckell, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Pamela Mary Gottschalk may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said James William Muckell had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 324.

An Act for the relief of Pauline Joan Hyde Murphy.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Pauline Joan Hyde Murphy, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, student, wife of Nelson James Peter Murphy, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the sixth day of September, A.D. 1942, at the said city, she then being Pauline Joan Hyde; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Pauline Joan Hyde and Nelson James Peter Murphy, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Pauline Joan Hyde may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Nelson James Peter Murphy had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 325.

An Act for the relief of Victor Reid Murray.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Victor Reid Murray, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, machinist, has by his petition alleged that on the fifth day of April, A.D. 1941, at the said city, he and Margaret Isabel Hillrich, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved

1. The said marriage between Victor Reid Murray and Margaret Isabel Hillrich, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again

2. The said Victor Reid Murray may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Margaret Isabel Hillrich had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 326.

An Act for the relief of Dorothy Hawkins Myers.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Dorothy Hawkins Myers, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Eric Myers, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the second day of May, A.D. 1936, at the city of Outremont, in the said province, she then being Dorothy Hawkins, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Dorothy Hawkins and Eric Myers, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Dorothy Hawkins may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Eric Myers had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 327.

An Act for the relief of Stewart Davidson Myles.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Stewart Davidson Myles, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, student, has by his petition alleged that on the sixth day of May, A.D. 1944, at the city of Sydney, in the province of Nova Scotia, he and Nora Claire Hall, who was then of the city of Moose Jaw, in the province of Saskatchewan, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Stewart Davidson Myles and Nora Claire Hall, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Stewart Davidson Myles may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Nora Claire Hall had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph..
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 328.

An Act for the relief of Rose Lazar Nadigel.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Rose Lazar Nadigel, residing at the city of ^{Preamble.} Montreal, in the province of Quebec, fur finisher, wife of Nathan Nadigel, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the sixth day of June, A.D. 1943, at the said city, she then being Rose Lazar, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Rose Lazar and Nathan Nadigel, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. ^{Marriage dissolved.}

2. The said Rose Lazar may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Nathan Nadigel had not been solemnized. ^{Right to marry again.}

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 329.

An Act for the relief of Lodie Kadei Nakel.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Lodie Kadei Nakel, residing at the city of Three Rivers, in the province of Quebec, waitress, wife of George Nakel, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-sixth day of September, A.D. 1935, at the town of Zahle, in the country of Lebanon, she then being Lodie Kadei, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Lodie Kadei and George Nakel, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Lodie Kadei may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said George Nakel had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 330.

An Act for the relief of Robert Alfred Nall.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Robert Alfred Nall, domiciled in Canada Preamble.
and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, assistant manager, has by his petition alleged that on the eighteenth day of March, A.D. 1944, at the said city, he and Joyce Hazel Watson, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery
since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the
said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons
of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Robert Alfred Nall and Marriage dissolved Joyce Hazel Watson, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Robert Alfred Nall may at any time here- Right to marry again.
after marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Joyce Hazel Watson had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 331.

An Act for the relief of Mary Hrab Navrotzki.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Mary Hrab Navrotzki, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, factory worker, wife of John Navrotzki, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-second day of June, A.D. 1924, in the district of Saracko, Poland, she then being Mary Hrab, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Mary Hrab and John Navrotzki, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Mary Hrab may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said John Navrotzki had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 332.

An Act for the relief of Proctor Clifford Neil.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Proctor Clifford Neil, domiciled in Canada Preamble.
and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, student, has by his petition alleged that on the sixth day of January, A.D. 1941, at the said city, he and Frederica Ivy Ibbotson, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has
prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their
marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts
as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Proctor Clifford Neil and Marriage dissolved.
Frederica Ivy Ibbotson, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Proctor Clifford Neil may at any time Right to marry again.
hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Frederica Ivy Ibbotson had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 333.

An Act for the relief of Charles Gordon Nelson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Charles Gordon Nelson, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, business executive, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-seventh day of April, A.D. 1940, at the said city, he and Agnes Patricia Hughes, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Charles Gordon Nelson and Agnes Patricia Hughes, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Charles Gordon Nelson may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Agnes Patricia Hughes had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 334.

An Act for the relief of Eugenia Drake Armstrong Newell.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Eugenia Drake Armstrong Newell, residing Preamble.
at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec,
secretary, wife of Thomas Arthur Newell, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Outremont, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighth day of October, A.D. 1936, at the city of Westmount, in the said province, she then being Eugenia Drake Armstrong, a spinster; and whereas by her petition
she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then,
their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage
and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and
it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as
follows:—

1. The said marriage between Eugenia Drake Armstrong Marriage and Thomas Arthur Newell, her husband, is hereby dis- dissolved.
solved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Eugenia Drake Armstrong may at any time Right to hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry marry again.
if the said marriage with the said Thomas Arthur Newell
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 335.

An Act for the relief of Constance Mae Ponman Newman.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Constance Mae Ponman Newman, residing at the city of Toronto, in the province of Ontario, stenographer, wife of John Vivian Seymour Newman, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifteenth day of May, A.D. 1943, at the said city of Montreal, she then being Constance Mae Ponman, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Constance Mae Ponman and John Vivian Seymour Newman, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Constance Mae Ponman may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said John Vivian Seymour Newman had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 336.

An Act for the relief of Alfred Nelson Nickle.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Alfred Nelson Nickle, domiciled in Canada Preamble.
and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, has by his petition alleged that on the second day of September, A.D. 1941, at the city of London, England, he and Margaret Josephine Gardner, who was then of the said city of London, a spinster, were married;
and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved;
and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and
House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Alfred Nelson Nickle and Marriage dissolved.
Margaret Josephine Gardner, his wife, is hereby dissolved,
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Alfred Nelson Nickle may at any time here- Right to marry again.
after marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Margaret Josephine Gardner had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 337.

An Act for the relief of Henrietta Elizabeth Forde Norrie.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Henrietta Elizabeth Forde Norrie, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, newspaper reporter, wife of Harold Rutledge Norrie, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Amos, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighteenth day of April, A.D. 1942, at the said city, she then being Henrietta Elizabeth Forde, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Henrietta Elizabeth Forde and Harold Rutledge Norrie, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Henrietta Elizabeth Forde may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Harold Rutledge Norrie had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 338.

An Act for the relief of Gladys May Kay Oliver.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Gladys May Kay Oliver, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, office clerk, wife of Ronald Oliver, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the ninth day of June, A.D. 1936, at the city of Westmount, in the said province, she then being Gladys May Kay, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Gladys May Kay and Ronald Oliver, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Gladys May Kay may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Ronald Oliver had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 339.

An Act for the relief of Doris Victoria Bellisle Page.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Doris Victoria Bellisle Page, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of James Sutherland McKay Page, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eleventh day of May, A.D. 1940, at the said city, she then being Doris Victoria Bellisle, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Doris Victoria Bellisle and James Sutherland McKay Page, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Doris Victoria Bellisle may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said James Sutherland McKay Page had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 340.

An Act for the relief of William Page.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS William Page, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, masseur, has by his petition alleged that on the ninth day of February, A.D. 1929, at the said city, he and Marcelle Olivier, who was then of the said city, a spinster,
were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed
that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery
have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient
that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between William Page and Marcelle Marriage Olivier, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth dissolved.
null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said William Page may at any time hereafter Right to marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the marry again.
said marriage with the said Marcelle Olivier had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 341.

An Act for the relief of Alison McKinnon Palmer.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble

WHEREAS Alison McKinnon Palmer, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Charles Wilfrid Palmer, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighteenth day of September, A.D. 1920, at Fallowfield, in the county of Manchester, England, she then being Alison McKinnon Crabtree, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Alison McKinnon Crabtree and Charles Wilfrid Palmer, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Alison McKinnon Crabtree may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Charles Wilfrid Palmer had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 342.

An Act for the relief of Ronald John Park.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Ronald John Park, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, has by his petition alleged that on the fifth day of February, A.D. 1944, at the city of Charlottetown, in the province of Prince Edward Island, he and Mary Florence MacKenzie, who was then of Beaton's Mills, in the said province of Prince Edward Island, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that,
because of her adultery since then, their marriage be
dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery
have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient
that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Ronald John Park and Marriage Mary Florence MacKenzie, his wife, is hereby dissolved, dissolved.
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Ronald John Park may at any time hereafter Right to marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the marry again.
said marriage with the said Mary Florence MacKenzie had
not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 343.

An Act for the relief of Muriel Alice Goddard Perkins.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble

WHEREAS Muriel Alice Goddard Perkins, residing at the town of Waterloo, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Alden Morse Perkins, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Magog, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-first day of June, A.D. 1927, at South Stukely, in the said province, she then being Muriel Alice Goddard, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Muriel Alice Goddard and Alden Morse Perkins, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Muriel Alice Goddard may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Alden Morse Perkins had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 344.

An Act for the relief of Beatrice Elman Perlman.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Beatrice Elman Perlman, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Joseph Perlman, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eleventh day of July, A.D. 1941, at the city of Outremont, in the said province, she then being Beatrice Elman Kluger, a widow; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Beatrice Elman Kluger and Joseph Perlman, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Beatrice Elman Kluger may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Joseph Perlman had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 345.

An Act for the relief of Ethel Ornstein Pfeffer.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Ethel Ornstein Pfeffer, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Alex Pfeffer, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventh day of August, A.D. 1934, at the said city, she then being Ethel Ornstein, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Ethel Ornstein and Alex Pfeffer, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Ethel Ornstein may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Alex Pfeffer had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 346.

An Act for the relief of Edwin Theophilus Phillips.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Edwin Theophilus Phillips, domiciled in Preamble.
Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, shoemaker, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-fourth day of December, A.D. 1914, at the said city, he and Rachel Clotilda Weekes, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery
since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the
said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice
and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of
Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Edwin Theophilus Phillips Marriage and Rachel Clotilda Weekes, his wife, is hereby dissolved, dissolved.
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Edwin Theophilus Phillips may at any time Right to hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry marry again.
if the said marriage with the said Rachel Clotilda Weekes
had not been solemnized.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 347.

An Act for the relief of Ida Lottie Stubina Pollack.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Ida Lottie Stubina Pollack, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, sales-lady, wife of Joseph Pollack, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-fifth day of March, A.D. 1928, at the said city, she then being Ida Lottie Stubina, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Ida Lottie Stubina and Joseph Pollack, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Ida Lottie Stubina may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Joseph Pollack had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 348.

An Act for the relief of Ethel Florence Rhodes Pompetti, otherwise known as Ethel Florence Crowdy Pompetti.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Ethel Florence Rhodes Pompetti, otherwise known as Ethel Florence Crowdy Pompetti, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Gabriele Pompetti, otherwise known as Gabriele Basto, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-second day of October, A.D. 1915, at the city of Halifax, in the province of Nova Scotia, she then being Ethel Florence Rhodes, otherwise known as Ethel Florence Crowdy, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Ethel Florence Rhodes, otherwise known as Ethel Florence Crowdy, and Gabriele Pompetti, otherwise known as Gabriele Basto, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Ethel Florence Rhodes, otherwise known as Ethel Florence Crowdy, may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Gabriele Pompetti, otherwise known as Gabriele Basto, had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 349.

An Act for the relief of Doris Phoebe Potter Potts.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Doris Phoebe Potter Potts, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of John Henry Potts, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-first day of February, A.D. 1942, at Reigate, in the county of Surrey, England, she then being Doris Phoebe Potter, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Doris Phoebe Potter and John Henry Potts, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Doris Phoebe Potter may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said John Henry Potts had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 350.

An Act for the relief of Harry Powell.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Harry Powell, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, engraver, has by his petition alleged that on the third day of August, A.D. 1927, in the district of Worcester, in the county of Worcester, England, he and Muriel Mabel Goodall, who was then of the said district, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that,
because of her adultery since then, their marriage be
dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery
have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient
that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Harry Powell and Muriel Marriage Mabel Goodall, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be dissolved.
henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Harry Powell may at any time hereafter Right to marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the marry again.
said marriage with the said Muriel Mabel Goodall had
not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 351.

An Act for the relief of Gardner Hinkley Prescott.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Gardner Hinkley Prescott, domiciled in Canada and residing at the village of Chambly Canton, in the province of Quebec, manufacturer, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-fourth day of June, A.D. 1939, at the said village, he and Isabel Macdonald, who was then of the said village, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Gardner Hinkley Prescott and Isabel Macdonald, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Gardner Hinkley Prescott may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Isabel Macdonald had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 352.

An Act for the relief of Sam Pronman.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Sam Pronman, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, tailor, has by his petition alleged that on the eighth day of September, A.D. 1946, at the said city, he and Bernice Gershman, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that,
because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that
the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty,
by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House
of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Sam Pronman and Bernice Marriage dissolved.
Gershman, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Sam Pronman may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Bernice Gershman had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 353.

An Act for the relief of Evelyn Florence Esson Pugh.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Evelyn Florence Esson Pugh, residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, operator, wife of George James Pugh, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of St. John's, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the third day of December, A.D. 1938, at the said city of St. John's, she then being Evelyn Florence Esson, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Evelyn Florence Esson and George James Pugh, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Evelyn Florence Esson may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said George James Pugh had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 354.

An Act for the relief of Marjorie Evelyn MacPherson Puley.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Marjorie Evelyn MacPherson Puley, residing at St. Anne de Bellevue, in the province of Quebec, student, wife of George Herbert Puley, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Bourlamaque, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventh day of December, A.D. 1940, at Malartic, in the said province, she then being Marjorie Evelyn MacPherson, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Marjorie Evelyn MacPherson and George Herbert Puley, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Marjorie Evelyn MacPherson may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said George Herbert Puley had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 355.

An Act for the relief of Mary Kalichman Pulver.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Mary Kalichman Pulver, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, garment worker, wife of Ansel Pulver, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-third day of March, A.D. 1937, at the said city, she then being Mary Kalichman, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Mary Kalichman and Ansel Pulver, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Mary Kalichman may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Ansel Pulver had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 356.

An Act for the relief of Juliette Adrienne Labrosse Renaud.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Juliette Adrienne Labrosse Renaud, residing Preamble.
at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, boarding house keeper, wife of Joseph Adolphe Ernest Renaud, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the ninth day of January, A.D. 1923, at the said city, she then being Juliette Adrienne Labrosse, a spinster; and
whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and
whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved
by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House
of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Juliette Adrienne Labrosse Marriage dissolved. and Joseph Adolphe Ernest Renaud, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Juliette Adrienne Labrosse may at any time Right to marry again.
hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry
if the said marriage with the said Joseph Adolphe Ernest Renaud had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 357.

An Act for the relief of Marie Rose Alba Bernadette Lapointe dit Robin Ricard.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Marie Rose Alba Bernadette Lapointe dit Robin Ricard, residing at the town of Val Morin, in the province of Quebec, seamstress, wife of Omer Ricard, manager, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the second day of May, A.D. 1916, at the said city, she then being Marie Rose Alba Bernadette Lapointe dit Robin, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Marie Rose Alba Bernadette Lapointe dit Robin and Omer Ricard, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Marie Rose Alba Bernadette Lapointe dit Robin may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Omer Ricard had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 358.

An Act for the relief of Romeo Richard.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Romeo Richard, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, restaurateur, has by his petition alleged that on the twelfth day of April, A.D. 1930, at the said city, he and Emelia Bourque, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has
prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their
marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts
as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Romeo Richard and Emelia Marriage Bourque, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be hence- dissolved.
forth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Romeo Richard may at any time hereafter Right to marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the marry again.
said marriage with the said Emelia Bourque had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 359.

An Act for the relief of Eileen Maude Gardner Richards.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Eileen Maude Gardner Richards, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, stenographer, wife of Joseph Alexander Trottwood Richards, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-sixth day of April, A.D. 1941, at the said city, she then being Eileen Maude Gardner, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Eileen Maude Gardner and Joseph Alexander Trottwood Richards, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again

2. The said Eileen Maude Gardner may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Joseph Alexander Trottwood Richards had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 360.

An Act for the relief of Margaret Patricia Fairhurst Richards.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Margaret Patricia Fairhurst Richards, re- Preamble. siding at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Edward Joseph Richards, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourth day of December, A.D. 1940, at the said city, she then being Margaret Patricia Fairhurst, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery
since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the
said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice
and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of
Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Margaret Patricia Fairhurst Marriage and Edward Joseph Richards, her husband, is hereby dissolved.
dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all
intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Margaret Patricia Fairhurst may at any Right to time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry again.
marry if the said marriage with the said Edward Joseph Richards had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 361.

An Act for the relief of Mary Ann Clorenda Archer Richardson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Mary Ann Clorenda Archer Richardson, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Douglas Arthur Richardson, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twentieth day of December, A.D. 1943, at the said city, she then being Mary Ann Clorenda Archer, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved

1. The said marriage between Mary Ann Clorenda Archer and Douglas Arthur Richardson, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Mary Ann Clorenda Archer may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Douglas Arthur Richardson had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 362.

An Act for the relief of Eugenie Beatrice Smith Ricketts.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Eugenie Beatrice Smith Ricketts, residing Preamble.
at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Wilfred Herbert Ricketts, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifth day of September, A.D. 1936, at the said city, she then being Eugenie Beatrice Smith, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since
then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said
marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons
of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Eugenie Beatrice Smith Marriage and Wilfred Herbert Ricketts, her husband, is hereby dissolved.
dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all
intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Eugenie Beatrice Smith may at any time Right to hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry marry again.
if the said marriage with the said Wilfred Herbert Ricketts
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 363.

An Act for the relief of Jean Lawrence Ritchie.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Jean Lawrence Ritchie, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of John Allan Ritchie, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the nineteenth day of May, A.D. 1945, at the city of Westmount, in the said province, she then being Jean Lawrence, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Jean Lawrence and John Allan Ritchie, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Jean Lawrence may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said John Allan Ritchie had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 364.

An Act for the relief of Harold Ashton Hugh Roberts.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Harold Ashton Hugh Roberts, domiciled in Preamble.
Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, cleaner, has by his petition alleged that on the nineteenth day of January, A.D. 1932, at the said city, he and Mary Comrie McLearn, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since
then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said
marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice
and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of
Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Harold Ashton Hugh Marriage dissolved.
Roberts and Mary Comrie McLearn, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Harold Ashton Hugh Roberts may at any Right to marry again.
time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Mary Comrie McLearn had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 365.

An Act for the relief of Marian Susan Willson Roberts.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Marian Susan Willson Roberts, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, library assistant, wife of William Goodridge Roberts, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the nineteenth day of December, A.D. 1933, at the city of Ottawa, in the province of Ontario, she then being Marian Susan Willson, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Marian Susan Willson and William Goodridge Roberts, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Marian Susan Willson may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said William Goodridge Roberts had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 366.

An Act for the relief of Harold Robinson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Harold Robinson, domiciled in Canada and Preamble. residing at the city of Westmount, in the province of Quebec, machinist, has by his petition alleged that on the seventh day of November, A.D. 1942, at the said city, he and Helen Robinson, who was then of the city of Montreal, in the said province, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery
since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the
said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice
and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of
Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Harold Robinson and Marriage dissolved.
Helen Robinson, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Harold Robinson may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Helen Robinson had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 367.

An Act for the relief of Irene Elizabeth Burke Robinson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble

WHEREAS Irene Elizabeth Burke Robinson, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, book-keeper, wife of Herbert Thomas Robinson, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twentieth day of April, A.D. 1940, at the said city, she then being Irene Elizabeth Burke, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved

1. The said marriage between Irene Elizabeth Burke and Herbert Thomas Robinson, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Irene Elizabeth Burke may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Herbert Thomas Robinson had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 368.

An Act for the relief of Muriel Amelia Dufty Rochet.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Muriel Amelia Dufty Rochet, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Eugene Joseph Rochet, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-second day of March, A.D. 1935, at the said city, she then being Muriel Amelia Dufty, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Muriel Amelia Dufty and Eugene Joseph Rochet, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Muriel Amelia Dufty may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Eugene Joseph Rochet had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 369.

An Act for the relief of Gloria Avon Roland.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Gloria Avon Roland, residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, wife of Joseph Gordon Roland, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the tenth day of April, A.D. 1946, at the said city of Verdun, she then being Gloria Avon, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Gloria Avon and Joseph Gordon Roland, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Gloria Avon may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Joseph Gordon Roland had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 370.

An Act for the relief of Peter Samuel Rosen.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Peter Samuel Rosen, domiciled in Canada Preamble.
and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, salesman, has by his petition alleged that on the ninth day of March, A.D. 1944, at the said city, he and Florence Mavis Ship, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has
prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their
marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as
follows:—

1. The said marriage between Peter Samuel Rosen and Florence Mavis Ship, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall Marriage
dissolved.
be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Peter Samuel Rosen may at any time here- Right to
marry again.
after marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Florence Mavis Ship had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 371.

An Act for the relief of Bernadette Mayford Roy.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Bernadette Mayford Roy, residing at the city of Hull, in the province of Quebec, wife of Joseph Ernest Roy, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighteenth day of January, A.D. 1941, at the said city of Hull, she then being Bernadette Mayford Roy, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Bernadette Mayford Roy and Joseph Ernest Roy, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Bernadette Mayford Roy may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Joseph Ernest Roy had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 372.

An Act for the relief of Hazel Mair Grant Rubin.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Hazel Mair Grant Rubin, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, trained attendant, wife of Allan Rubin, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifth day of July, A.D. 1939, at the said city, she then being Hazel Mair Grant, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Hazel Mair Grant and Allan Rubin, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Hazel Mair Grant may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Allan Rubin had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 373.

An Act for the relief of Norma Marzitelli Rudzik.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Norma Marzitelli Rudzik, residing at the town of Abord-A-Plouffe, in the province of Quebec, wife of Stanley Rudzik, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-eighth day of July, A.D. 1945, at the said city, she then being Norma Marzitelli, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Norma Marzitelli and Stanley Rudzik, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Norma Marzitelli may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Stanley Rudzik had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 374.

An Act for the relief of Ernest Stanley Rundell.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Ernest Stanley Rundell, domiciled in Canada Preamble. and residing at the town of Lennoxville, in the province of Quebec, night watchman, has by his petition alleged that on the fifteenth day of July, A.D. 1927, at the town of Essex, in the province of Ontario, he and Nitha Belle Campbell, who was then of the town of Leamington, in the said province of Ontario, a spinster, were married;
and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and
whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved
by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Ernest Stanley Rundell Marriage dissolved.
and Nitha Belle Campbell, his wife, is hereby dissolved,
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Ernest Stanley Rundell may at any time Right to marry again.
hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Nitha Belle Campbell had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 375.

An Act for the relief of Jean Isabel Dalton Ryan.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Jean Isabel Dalton Ryan, residing at the city of Westmount, in the province of Quebec, stenographer, wife of Sydney Roderick Ryan, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twentieth day of September, A.D. 1941, at the said city, she then being Jean Isabel Dalton, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Jean Isabel Dalton and Sydney Roderick Ryan, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Jean Isabel Dalton may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Sydney Roderick Ryan had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 376.

An Act for the relief of Donat St. Jean.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Donat St. Jean, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, barber, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-sixth day of October, A.D. 1927, at the city of Chicoutimi, in the said province, he and M. Alice Emilienne Lapointe, who was then of the said city of Chicoutimi, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has
prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their
marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as
follows:—

1. The said marriage between Donat St. Jean and Marriage dissolved.
M. Alice Emilienne Lapointe, his wife, is hereby dissolved,
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Donat St. Jean may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said M. Alice Emilienne Lapointe
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 377.

An Act for the relief of Judith Bychowsky Sanders.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Judith Bychowsky Sanders, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, office manager, wife of Theodore Herzl Sanders, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the sixth day of June, A.D. 1943, at the city of Winnipeg, in the province of Manitoba, she then being Judith Bychowsky, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Judith Bychowsky and Theodore Herzl Sanders, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Judith Bychowsky may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Theodore Herzl Sanders had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 378.

An Act for the relief of Joseph Edmond Gerard Santoire.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Joseph Edmond Gerard Santoire, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, civic employee, has by his petition alleged that on the eighth day of September, A.D. 1937, at the said city, he and Maria Reina Florida Beaupre, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Joseph Edmond Gerard Santoire and Maria Reina Florida Beaupre, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Joseph Edmond Gerard Santoire may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Maria Reina Florida Beaupre had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 379.

An Act for the relief of Margaret Lena Bertha Dasen Scheffer.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Margaret Lena Bertha Dasen Scheffer, residing at the city of Outremont, in the province of Quebec, machine operator, wife of Otto Scheffer, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifteenth day of October, A.D. 1940, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, she then being Margaret Lena Bertha Dasen, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Margaret Lena Bertha Dasen and Otto Scheffer, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Margaret Lena Bertha Dasen may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Otto Scheffer had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 380.

An Act for the relief of Betty Gertrude Bernstein Schreiber.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Betty Gertrude Bernstein Schreiber, residing Preamble.
at the city of Outremont, in the province of Quebec, wife of George Gordon Schreiber, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourteenth day of September, A.D. 1946, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, she then being Betty Gertrude Bernstein,
a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that,
because of his adultery since then, their marriage be
dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery
have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient
that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Betty Gertrude Bernstein Marriage and George Gordon Schreiber, her husband, is hereby dissolved.
dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all
intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Betty Gertrude Bernstein may at any time Right to hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry marry again.
if the said marriage with the said George Gordon Schreiber
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 381.

An Act for the relief of Molly Marcovitch Schwartz.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Molly Marcovitch Schwartz, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, retired, wife of Isaac Schwartz, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-eighth day of June, A.D. 1927, at the said city, she then being Molly Marcovitch, a widow; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Molly Marcovitch and Isaac Schwartz, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Molly Marcovitch may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Isaac Schwartz had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 382.

An Act for the relief of Irja Alina Agnes Vaisanen Shanahan.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Irja Alina Agnes Vaisanen Shanahan, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Patrick John Shanahan, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventh day of May, A.D. 1929, at the said city, she then being Irja Alina Agnes Vaisanen, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Irja Alina Agnes Vaisanen and Patrick John Shanahan, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Irja Alina Agnes Vaisanen may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Patrick John Shanahan had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 383.

An Act for the relief of Veronica Donnelly Hope Johnstone Shelley.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Prea ble.

WHEREAS Veronica Donnelly Hope Johnstone Shelley, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, bookkeeper, wife of William Gavin Shelley, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the nineteenth day of March, A.D. 1941, at the said city, she then being Veronica Donnelly Hope Johnstone, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Veronica Donnelly Hope Johnstone and William Gavin Shelley, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Veronica Donnelly Hope Johnstone may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said William Gavin Shelley had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 384.

An Act for the relief of Ethel Florence Barr Shiells.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Ethel Florence Barr Shiells, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, switch-board operator, wife of Alexander James Shiells, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the thirtieth day of December, A.D. 1939, at the said city, she then being Ethel Florence Barr, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Ethel Florence Barr and Alexander James Shiells, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Ethel Florence Barr may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Alexander James Shiells had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 385.

An Act for the relief of Ruth Morrison Henderson Sidders.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Ruth Morrison Henderson Sidders, residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, stenographer, wife of George William Sidders, junior, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twelfth day of March, A.D. 1932, at the said city, she then being Ruth Morrison Henderson, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Ruth Morrison Henderson and George William Sidders, junior, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Ruth Morrison Henderson may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said George William Sidders, junior, had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 386.

An Act for the relief of Bessie Letovsky Silverman.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Bessie Letovsky Silverman, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, book-keeper, wife of Lewis Silverman, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twentieth day of December, A.D. 1942, at the said city, she then being Bessie Letovsky, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Bessie Letovsky and Lewis Silverman, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Bessie Letovsky may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Lewis Silverman had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 387.

An Act for the relief of Rose Nemerofsky Silverstein.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Rose Nemerofsky Silverstein, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, cigar maker, wife of (Abraham) Isidore Silverstein, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifteenth day of July, A.D. 1924, at the said city, she then being Rose Nemerofsky, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Rose Nemerofsky and (Abraham) Isidore Silverstein, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Rose Nemerofsky may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said (Abraham) Isidore Silverstein had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 388.

An Act for the relief of Marcel Simonon.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Marcel Simonon, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, driver, has by his petition alleged that on the nineteenth day of November, A.D. 1925, at the said city, he and Jeanne Castiau, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Marcel Simonon and Jeanne Castiau, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Marcel Simonon may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Jeanne Castiau had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 389.

An Act for the relief of Pearl Summers Slater.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Pearl Summers Slater, residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, typist, wife of Arthur George Slater, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-first day of October, A.D. 1939, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, she then being Pearl Summers, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Pearl Summers and Arthur George Slater, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Pearl Summers may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Arthur George Slater had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 390.

An Act for the relief of Evelyn Alice Howard Smart.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Evelyn Alice Howard Smart, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Onesime Albert Smart, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourth day of December, A.D. 1934, at the town of Cowansville, in the said province, she then being Evelyn Alice Howard, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Evelyn Alice Howard and Onesime Albert Smart, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Evelyn Alice Howard may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Onesime Albert Smart had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 391.

An Act for the relief of Marjorie Winnifred Bearman Smeall.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Marjorie Winnifred Bearman Smeall, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, accountant, wife of Howard Malcolm Smeall, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the first day of March, A.D. 1940, at the city of Winnipeg, in the province of Manitoba, she then being Marjorie Winnifred Bearman, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Marjorie Winnifred Bearman and Howard Malcolm Smeall, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Marjorie Winnifred Bearman may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Howard Malcolm Smeall had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 392.

An Act for the relief of Annie Mildred Parnell Smellie.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Annie Mildred Parnell Smellie, residing at Preamble.
the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of James MacNair Smellie, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-second day of June, A.D. 1940, at the said city of Verdun, she then being Annie Mildred Parnell, a spinster;
and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved;
and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty,
by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and
House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Annie Mildred Parnell Marriage and James MacNair Smellie, her husband, is hereby dissolved.
dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all
intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Annie Mildred Parnell may at any time Right to hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry marry again.
if the said marriage with the said James MacNair Smellie
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 393.

An Act for the relief of Hilda Mary Charlotte Kelly Smith.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Hilda Mary Charlotte Kelly Smith, residing at the town of Pointe Claire, in the province of Quebec, wife of Raymond Frank Smith, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Westmount, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-seventh day of August, A.D. 1927, at the city of Toronto, in the province of Ontario, she then being Hilda Mary Charlotte Kelly, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Hilda Mary Charlotte Kelly and Raymond Frank Smith, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Hilda Mary Charlotte Kelly may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Raymond Frank Smith had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 394.

An Act for the relief of Jessie MacFarlane Boyle Smith.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Jessie MacFarlane Boyle Smith, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, switch-board operator, wife of Howard Adam Smith, otherwise known as Howard Thomas Smith, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-eighth day of November, A.D. 1937, at the said city, she then being Jessie MacFarlane Boyle, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Jessie MacFarlane Boyle and Howard Adam Smith, otherwise known as Howard Thomas Smith, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Jessie MacFarlane Boyle may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Howard Adam Smith, otherwise known as Howard Thomas Smith, had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 395.

An Act for the relief of Libby Margolese Smith.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Libby Margolese Smith, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, book-keeper, wife of Jack Smith, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Vancouver, in the province of British Columbia, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the second day of April, A.D. 1944, at the said city of Montreal, she then being Libby Margolese, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Libby Margolese and Jack Smith, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Libby Margolese may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Jack Smith had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 396.

An Act for the relief of Rhondda Blanche Peace Hurford Smith.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Rhondda Blanche Peace Hurford Smith, Preamble.
residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of George Kitchener Smith, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourteenth day of September, A.D. 1940, at the said city of Verdun, she then being Rhondda Blanche Peace Hurford, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Rhondda Blanche Peace Hurford and George Kitchener Smith, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Rhondda Blanche Peace Hurford may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said George Kitchener Smith had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 397.

An Act for the relief of Mildred Merica Ruth Goodreau Snyder.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Mildred Merica Ruth Goodreau Snyder, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Samuel Snyder, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventeenth day of July, A.D. 1940, at the said city, she then being Mildred Merica Ruth Goodreau, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Mildred Merica Ruth Goodreau and Samuel Snyder, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Mildred Merica Ruth Goodreau may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Samuel Snyder had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 398.

An Act for the relief of Harold Fassett Staniforth.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Harold Fassett Staniforth, domiciled in Preamble.
Canada and residing at the city of Westmount, in the province of Quebec, engineer, has by his petition alleged that on the tenth day of May, A.D. 1941, at the said city, he and Marion Helen Hart, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since
then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said
marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons
of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Harold Fassett Staniforth Marriage dissolved. and Marion Helen Hart, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Harold Fassett Staniforth may at any time Right to marry again.
hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Marion Helen Hart had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 399.

An Act for the relief of Rose Elkin Steinman.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Rose Elkin Steinman, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Samuel Steinman, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-ninth day of September, A.D. 1932, at the said city, she then being Rose Elkin, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Rose Elkin and Samuel Steinman, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Rose Elkin may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Samuel Steinman had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 400.

An Act for the relief of Evangeline May Connelly Stervinou.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Evangeline May Connelly Stervinou, residing Preamble
at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Alexandre Louis Stervinou, clerk, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourth day of November, A.D. 1924, at the said city, she then being Evangeline May Connelly, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since
then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said
marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice
and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of
Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Evangeline May Connelly Marriage dissolved. and Alexandre Louis Stervinou, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Evangeline May Connelly may at any time Right to marry again.
hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry
if the said marriage with the said Alexandre Louis Stervinou had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L Ph..
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 401.

An Act for the relief of Alice Hamilton Peck Stevenson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Alice Hamilton Peck Stevenson, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Alan Gagy Stevenson, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the ninth day of April, A.D. 1934, at the town of Almonte, in the province of Ontario, she then being Alice Hamilton Peck, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Alice Hamilton Peck and Alan Gagy Stevenson, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Alice Hamilton Peck may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Alan Gagy Stevenson had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 402.

An Act for the relief of Florence Nancy Maria Haworth Stewart.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Florence Nancy Maria Haworth Stewart, Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Thomas Arthur Munroe Stewart, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city,
has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighth day of April, A.D. 1939, at the said city, she then being Florence Nancy Maria Haworth, a spinster; and
whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and
whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved
by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and
with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Florence Nancy Maria Marriage Haworth and Thomas Arthur Munroe Stewart, her husband, dissolved.
is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void
to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Florence Nancy Maria Haworth may at Right to any time hereafter marry any man whom she might marry again.
lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Thomas Arthur Munroe Stewart had not been solemnized.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 403.

An Act for the relief of Selden Grant Stoddard.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Selden Grant Stoddard, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Sherbrooke, in the province of Quebec, electrician, has by his petition alleged that on the sixth day of July, A.D. 1928, at the city of Fort William, in the province of Ontario, he and Blanch Ardell Sharon, who was then of the said city of Sherbrooke, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Selden Grant Stoddard and Blanch Ardell Sharon, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Selden Grant Stoddard may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Blanch Ardell Sharon had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 404.

An Act for the relief of Evelyn Mildred Cook Stone.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Evelyn Mildred Cook Stone, residing at the city of Verdun, in the province of Quebec, wife of Harry Walter Stone, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Westmount, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twentieth day of February, A.D. 1939, at the city of Halifax, in the province of Nova Scotia, she then being Evelyn Mildred Cook, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Evelyn Mildred Cook and Harry Walter Stone, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Evelyn Mildred Cook may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Harry Walter Stone had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 405.

An Act for the relief of Mary Nellie McGurk Stone.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Mary Nellie McGurk Stone, residing at the town of Riverside, in the province of Ontario, wife of Thomas Edison Stone, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourteenth day of June, A.D. 1935, at the said city, she then being Mary Nellie McGurk, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Mary Nellie McGurk and Thomas Edison Stone, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Mary Nellie McGurk may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Thomas Edison Stone had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 406.

An Act for the relief of Percy Coleman Stuart.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Percy Coleman Stuart, domiciled in Canada Preamble.
and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, waiter, has by his petition alleged that on the twelfth day of October, A.D. 1927, at the city of Moncton, in the province of New Brunswick, he and Annie Elizabeth Walker, who was then of the said city of Moncton, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has
prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their
marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts
as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Percy Coleman Stuart Marriage and Annie Elizabeth Walker, his wife, is hereby dissolved, dissolved.
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Percy Coleman Stuart may at any time Right to hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry again.
marry if the said marriage with the said Annie Elizabeth Walker had not been solemnized.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 407.

An Act for the relief of Harold Swann.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Harold Swann, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, draughtsman, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-sixth day of September, A.D. 1942, at the said city, he and Virginia Frances Carney, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Harold Swann and Virginia Frances Carney, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Harold Swann may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Virginia Frances Carney had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 408.

An Act for the relief of Joyce Kathleen Reynolds Swards.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Joyce Kathleen Reynolds Swards, residing Preamble.
at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec,
secretary, wife of Max Hellman Swards, who is domiciled
in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the second day of December, A.D. 1943, at the city of Westmount, in the said province, she then being Joyce Kathleen Reynolds, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that,
because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that
the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty,
by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House
of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Joyce Kathleen Reynolds Marriage dissolved. and Max Hellman Swards, her husband, is hereby dissolved,
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Joyce Kathleen Reynolds may at any time Right to marry again.
hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry
if the said marriage with the said Max Hellman Swards
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 409.

An Act for the relief of Melville Mae Rundle Swinburne.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Melville Mae Rundle Swinburne, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, secretary, wife of Francis William Swinburne, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Outremont, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the sixteenth day of January, A.D. 1929, at the said city of Montreal, she then being Melville Mae Rundle, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Melville Mae Rundle and Francis William Swinburne, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Melville Mae Rundle may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Francis William Swinburne had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 410.

An Act for the relief of Ellen Heathcote Taschereau.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Ellen Heathcote Taschereau, residing at the Preamble.
city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, nurse, wife of Henri Taschereau, otherwise known as Harry Taschereau, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Quebec, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the tenth day of August, A.D. 1936, at the city of Manchester, England, she then being Ellen Heathcote, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since
then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said
marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons
of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Ellen Heathcote and Marriage dissolved.
Henri Taschereau, otherwise known as Harry Taschereau, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Ellen Heathcote may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Henri Taschereau, otherwise known as Harry Taschereau, had not been solemnized.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 411.

An Act for the relief of Adeline Charlotte Simone Desjardins Teakle.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Adeline Charlotte Simone Desjardins Teakle, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Charles Doddridge Teakle, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventh day of October, A.D. 1929, at the city of Quebec, in the said province, she then being Adeline Charlotte Simone Desjardins, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Adeline Charlotte Simone Desjardins and Charles Doddridge Teakle, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Adeline Charlotte Simone Desjardins may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Charles Doddridge Teakle had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 412.

An Act for the relief of Eileen Ardis Locke Thompson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Eileen Ardis Locke Thompson, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Frank Noble Thompson, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twelfth day of July, A.D. 1941, at the said city, she then being Eileen Ardis Locke, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Eileen Ardis Locke and Frank Noble Thompson, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Eileen Ardis Locke may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Frank Noble Thompson had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 413.

An Act for the relief of Jean Elizabeth Hancock Thompson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Jean Elizabeth Hancock Thompson, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Charles Thompson, junior, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventeenth day of January, A.D. 1942, at the said city, she then being Jean Elizabeth Hancock, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Jean Elizabeth Hancock and Charles Thompson, junior, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Jean Elizabeth Hancock may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Charles Thompson, junior, had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph. ,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 414.

An Act for the relief of Ida Norma Thompson Thornton.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Ida Norma Thompson Thornton, residing at the town of Montreal East, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Thomas Anderson Thornton, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said town, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighteenth day of January, A.D. 1940, at the said town, she then being Ida Norma Thompson, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Ida Norma Thompson and Thomas Anderson Thornton, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Ida Norma Thompson may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Thomas Anderson Thornton had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 415.

An Act for the relief of Eva Greenblatt Thow.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Eva Greenblatt Thow, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Lewis Thow, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the first day of January, A.D. 1939, at the said city, she then being Eva Greenblatt, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Eva Greenblatt and Lewis Thow, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Eva Greenblatt may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Lewis Thow had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 416.

An Act for the relief of Violet Eileen Lepine Tickner.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Violet Eileen Lepine Tickner, residing at the town of Winona, in the province of Ontario, wife of Arthur Bertie Tickner, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Rawdon, in the province of Quebec, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eleventh day of September, A.D. 1926, at the city of Montreal, in the said province of Quebec, she then being Violet Eileen Lepine, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Violet Eileen Lepine and Arthur Bertie Tickner, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Violet Eileen Lepine may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Arthur Bertie Tickner had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 417.

An Act for the relief of Doreen Jeanette Sibley Tirbutt.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Doreen Jeanette Sibley Tirbutt, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Arthur Melville Tirbutt, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventh day of February, A.D. 1942, in the district of Surrey North Western, in the county of Surrey, England, she then being Doreen Jeanette Sibley, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Doreen Jeanette Sibley and Arthur Melville Tirbutt, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Doreen Jeanette Sibley may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Arthur Melville Tirbutt had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 418.

An Act for the relief of Goldie Slovinsky Tkatch.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Goldie Slovinsky Tkatch, residing at the Preamble.
city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Irving Harry Tkatch, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twelfth day of January, A.D. 1943, at the said city, she then being Goldie Slovinsky, a spinster;
and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved;
and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty,
by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and
House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Goldie Slovinsky and Marriage dissolved.
Irving Harry Tkatch, her husband, is hereby dissolved,
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Goldie Slovinsky may at any time hereafter Right to marry again.
marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Irving Harry Tkatch had not
been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 419.

An Act for the relief of Gladys Kathleen Wilkins Todd.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Gladys Kathleen Wilkins Todd, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, saleslady, wife of Richard James Todd, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the thirtieth day of October, A.D. 1933, at the said city, she then being Gladys Kathleen Wilkins, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Gladys Kathleen Wilkins and Richard James Todd, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Gladys Kathleen Wilkins may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Richard James Todd had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 420.

An Act for the relief of Robert Ralph Tripp.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Robert Ralph Tripp, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, artist, has by his petition alleged that on the twentieth day of June, A.D. 1942, at the said city, he and Lois Isobel Cunningham, who was then of the said city,
a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their
marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as
follows:—

1. The said marriage between Robert Ralph Tripp and Marriage dissolved.
Lois Isobel Cunningham, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Robert Ralph Tripp may at any time here- Right to marry again.
after marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Lois Isobel Cunningham
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 421.

An Act for the relief of Margaret Cote Truax.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Margaret Cote Truax, residing at the village of Dunkin, in the province of Quebec, waitress, wife of Jacob Winslow Truax, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the first day of December, A.D. 1935, at the city of Troy, in the state of Vermont, one of the United States of America, she then being Margaret Cote, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Margaret Cote and Jacob Winslow Truax, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Margaret Cote may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Jacob Winslow Truax had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 422.

An Act for the relief of Guido Verdoni.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Guido Verdoni, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, shoe-maker, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-fifth day of October, A.D. 1941, at the said city, he and Marguerite Zappa, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Guido Verdoni and Marguerite Zappa, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Guido Verdoni may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Marguerite Zappa had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 423.

An Act for the relief of Gustave Lucien Verhelle.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Gustave Lucien Verhelle, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, moulder, has by his petition alleged that on the sixteenth day of August, A.D. 1941, at the said city, he and Bernice Thomson, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Gustave Lucien Verhelle and Bernice Thomson, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Gustave Lucien Verhelle may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Bernice Thomson had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 424.

An Act for the relief of Clinton Escott Vipond.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Clinton Escott Vipond, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, draughtsman, has by his petition alleged that on the seventh day of September, A.D. 1927, at the said city, he and Alice May Phillips, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Clinton Escott Vipond and Alice May Phillips, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Clinton Escott Vipond may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Alice May Phillips had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 425.

An Act for the relief of Fennie Nettie Adelstein Waldman.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Fennie Nettie Adelstein Waldman, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Jacob Herbert Waldman, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the ninth day of April, A.D. 1930, at the city of Westmount, in the said province, she then being Fennie Nettie Adelstein, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Fennie Nettie Adelstein and Jacob Herbert Waldman, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Fennie Nettie Adelstein may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Jacob Herbert Waldman had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 426.

An Act for the relief of Jack Wallis.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Jack Wallis, domiciled in Canada and residing at Brosseau Station, in the district of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, farmer, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-third day of January, A.D. 1943, at the parish of Preston, in the county of Surrey, England, he and Winifred Elizabeth Moore, who was then of the said parish, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Jack Wallis and Winifred Elizabeth Moore, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Jack Wallis may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Winifred Elizabeth Moore had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 427.

An Act for the relief of Margaret Turner Shaw Ward.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Margaret Turner Shaw Ward, residing at the city of Lachine, in the province of Quebec, wife of Eric Pentney Ward, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Valois, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifteenth day of June, A.D. 1935, at the city of St. Lambert, in the said province, she then being Margaret Turner Shaw, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Margaret Turner Shaw and Eric Pentney Ward, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Margaret Turner Shaw may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Eric Pentney Ward had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 428.

An Act for the relief of Pierre-Ben-Danais Warren.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Pierre-Ben-Danais Warren, domiciled in Preamble.
Canada and residing at St. Colomb de Sillery, in the province of Quebec, civil engineer, has by his petition alleged that on the seventh day of November, A.D. 1939, at the city of Quebec, in the said province, he and Marie Madeleine Mercier, who was then of the said city, a spinster,
were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed
that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery
have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient
that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Pierre-Ben-Danais Warren Marriage and Marie Madeleine Mercier, his wife, is hereby dissolved, dissolved.
and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and
purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Pierre-Ben-Danais Warren may at any time Right to hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry marry again.
if the said marriage with the said Marie Madeleine Mercier
had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 429.

An Act for the relief of Anthony Wavroch.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Anthony Wavroch, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, carpenter, has by his petition alleged that on the twenty-first day of September, A.D. 1937, at West Hansford, in the province of Nova Scotia, he and Muriel Bertha O'Neil, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Anthony Wavroch and Muriel Bertha O'Neil, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Anthony Wavroch may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Muriel Bertha O'Neil had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 430.

An Act for the relief of Esther Lancit Weiss.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Esther Lancit Weiss, residing at the city of Preamble.
Montreal, in the province of Quebec, bookkeeper, wife of Ernest Weiss, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventeenth day of March, A.D.
1946, at the said city, she then being Esther Lancit, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that,
because of his adultery since then, their marriage be
dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery
have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient
that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Esther Lancit and Ernest Marriage
Weiss, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be hence- dissolved.
forth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Esther Lancit may at any time hereafter Right to marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marry again.
marriage with the said Ernest Weiss had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 431.

An Act for the relief of Ralph Wighton.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Ralph Wighton, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Outremont, in the province of Quebec, mechanic, has by his petition alleged that on the nineteenth day of January, A.D. 1920, at the town of Richford, in the state of Vermont, one of the United States of America, he and Annie Olga Stinehour, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Ralph Wighton and Annie Olga Stinehour, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Ralph Wighton may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Annie Olga Stinehour had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 432.

An Act for the relief of Patricia Ellen Burt Williams.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Patricia Ellen Burt Williams, residing at the Preamble. city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, secretary, wife of Allan John Williams, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-seventh day of December, A.D. 1941, at the said city, she then being Patricia Ellen Burt, a spinster; and whereas by her petition
she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then,
their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage
and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and
it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts
as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Patricia Ellen Burt and Marriage dissolved.
Allan John Williams, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Patricia Ellen Burt may at any time here- Right to marry again.
after marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Allan John Williams had not
been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 433.

An Act for the relief of Anna Lovannah Theoret Wilson.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Anna Lovannah Theoret Wilson, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, teacher, wife of Walter Henry Brian Wilson, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Pitsea, in the county of Essex, England, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the seventeenth day of November, A.D. 1928, at the said city of Montreal, she then being Anna Lovannah Theoret, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Anna Lovannah Theoret and Walter Henry Brian Wilson, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Anna Lovannah Theoret may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Walter Henry Brian Wilson had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 434.

An Act for the relief of Claire Black Wolfe.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Claire Black Wolfe, residing at the city of Preamble.
Montreal, in the province of Quebec, clerk, wife of Louis Wolfe, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the sixth day of April, A.D. 1944, at the said city, she then being Claire Black, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery
since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the
said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence
adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition
be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice
and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of
Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Claire Black and Louis Marriage Wolfe, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be hence- dissolved.
forth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Claire Black may at any time hereafter Right to marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marry again.
marriage with the said Louis Wolfe had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 435.

An Act for the relief of William Walter Woodall.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS William Walter Woodall, domiciled in Canada and residing at the town of Ste. Rose, in the province of Quebec, machinist, has by his petition alleged that on the thirty-first day of July, A.D. 1943, at the city of Brighton, in the county of Sussex, England, he and Patricia Dorothy Vore, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between William Walter Woodall and Patricia Dorothy Vore, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said William Walter Woodall may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Patricia Dorothy Vore had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 436.

An Act for the relief of Winnifred Doris Cleaver Wooley.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Winnifred Doris Cleaver Wooley, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, bookkeeper, wife of Edwin Austin Wooley, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twenty-ninth day of July, A.D. 1944, at the said city, she then being Winnifred Doris Cleaver, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:— Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Winnifred Doris Cleaver and Edwin Austin Wooley, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Winnifred Doris Cleaver may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Edwin Austin Wooley had not been solemnized. Right to marry again.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 437.

An Act for the relief of Dan Alonzo Dwight Wright.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Dan Alonzo Dwight Wright, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of St. Johns, in the province of Quebec, fire chief, has by his petition alleged that on the eighth day of June, A.D. 1935, at the town of Dryden, in the province of Ontario, he and Lois Winter, who was then of the said town, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Dan Alonzo Dwight Wright and Lois Winter, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Dan Alonzo Dwight Wright may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Lois Winter had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 438.

An Act for the relief of Ernest Wright.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Ernest Wright, domiciled in Canada and Preamble.
residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, manager, has by his petition alleged that on the thirtieth day of November, A.D. 1933, at the said city, he and Lillian Ethel Triggs, who was then of the said city,
a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their
marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and
adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted:
Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts
as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Ernest Wright and Lillian Marriage Ethel Triggs, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be dissolved.
henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes
whatsoever.

2. The said Ernest Wright may at any time hereafter Right to marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marry again.
marriage with the said Lillian Ethel Triggs had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 439.

An Act for the relief of Cipoire Segall Wurmbrand.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Cipoire Segall Wurmbrand, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Hersh Wurmbrand, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twelfth day of September, A.D. 1924, at the town of Suczawa, in the province of Bucovina, in the kingdom of Roumania, she then being Cipoire Segall, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Cipoire Segall and Hersh Wurmbrand, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Cipoire Segall may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Hersh Wurmbrand had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 440.

An Act for the relief of Mile Kristo Yoja, otherwise known as Stanley Vadie.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Mile Kristo Yoja, otherwise known as Preamble.
Stanley Vadie, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, has by his petition alleged that on the tenth day of September, A.D. 1932, at the town of Noranda, in the said province, he and Clemence Elizabeth Cote, a spinster, were married; that on the seventeenth day of May, A.D. 1933, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, they were married again; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriages be dissolved; and whereas the said marriages and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriages between Mile Kristo Yoja, otherwise known as Stanley Vadie, and Clemence Elizabeth Cote, his wife, are, respectively, hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Marriages dissolved.

2. The said Mile Kristo Yoja, otherwise known as Stanley Vadie, may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriages with the said Clemence Elizabeth Cote had not been solemnized. Right to marry again

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 441.

An Act for the relief of Archie William Young.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Archie William Young, domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, labourer, has by his petition alleged that on the tenth day of January, A.D. 1941, at the said city, he and Edna Bridget Ellement, who was then of the said city, a spinster, were married; and whereas by his petition he has prayed that, because of her adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of his petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Archie William Young and Edna Bridget Ellement, his wife, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Archie William Young may at any time hereafter marry any woman whom he might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Edna Bridget Ellement had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 442.

An Act for the relief of Ida Berman Zatz.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

WHEREAS Ida Berman Zatz, residing at the city of Preamble.
Montreal, in the province of Quebec, dental assistant, wife of Solomon Zatz, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the eighteenth day of January, A.D.
1942, at the said city, she then being Ida Berman, a spinster;
and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and
whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved
by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer
of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The said marriage between Ida Berman and Solomon Marriage Zatz, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be hence- dissolved.
forth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. The said Ida Berman may at any time hereafter Right to marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marry again.
marriage with the said Solomon Zatz had not been
solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

11 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 443.

An Act for the relief of Esther Cole Zeesman.

[Assented to 17th July, 1947.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Esther Cole Zeesman, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, office clerk, wife of Philip Zeesman, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the ninth day of January, A.D. 1946, in the district of Manchester, in the county borough of Manchester, England, she then being Esther Cole, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Esther Cole and Philip Zeesman, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Esther Cole may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Philip Zeesman had not been solemnized.

OTTAWA: Printed by EDMOND CLOUTIER, C.M.G., B.A., L.Ph.,
Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

INDEX

DIVORCE ACTS

THIRD SESSION, TWENTIETH PARLIAMENT, 11 GEORGE VI, 1947.

(Page figures denote numbers at the bottom of pages.)

CHAP.	PAGE
96. An Act for the relief of James Arthur Ablett.....	3
97. An Act for the relief of Margaret Blane Bowen Adair.....	4
98. An Act for the relief of Clifford Gilbert Adams.....	5
99. An Act for the relief of Muriel Agnes Martin Adams.....	6
100. An Act for the relief of Elsie McCormick Albers.....	7
101. An Act for the relief of Beatrice Dorothy Pountney Alker.....	8
102. An Act for the relief of Marion Mapes Harvey Allinson.....	9
103. An Act for the relief of Lilly Evans Auty.....	10
104. An Act for the relief of Julia Luella Audrey Cleroux Babbage.....	11
105. An Act for the relief of Bernard Stanley Bailey.....	12
106. An Act for the relief of Rose Waselevsky Balakirsky.....	13
107. An Act for the relief of Margaret Lillian McCorkell Baldwin.....	14
108. An Act for the relief of Hilda Wylie Bannister.....	15
109. An Act for the relief of Elizabeth McIntosh Barber.....	16
110. An Act for the relief of Gertie Rabin Bard.....	17
111. An Act for the relief of Edward Charles Barron.....	18
112. An Act for the relief of Lorne Earl Barth.....	19
113. An Act for the relief of Sydney Beaver.....	20
114. An Act for the relief of George Somerville Blackie Begg.....	21
115. An Act for the relief of Gilberto (Albert) Belmonte.....	22
116. An Act for the relief of Philip Berger.....	23
117. An Act for the relief of Margaret Hamilton Wilson Bergeron.....	24
118. An Act for the relief of Aime Bibeau.....	25
119. An Act for the relief of Ursula Catherine Tetreau Black.....	26
120. An Act for the relief of Eileen Louise Thomas Bleakney.....	27
121. An Act for the relief of Rose Housefield Blumstein.....	28
122. An Act for the relief of Helen Lilian Jaques Bowen.....	29
123. An Act for the relief of Douglas Wilson Bradshaw.....	30
124. An Act for the relief of Esther Mary Harding Breeze.....	31
125. An Act for the relief of Patricia Violet Puttock Bromby.....	32
126. An Act for the relief of Agnes Dowd Brown.....	33
127. An Act for the relief of Ivy Stapleton Brown.....	34
128. An Act for the relief of Mary Margaret Rider Brown.....	35
129. An Act for the relief of William Howell MacDonald Brown.....	36
130. An Act for the relief of Muriel Lucy Brighten Burdon.....	37
131. An Act for the relief of Margaret Betty Rollings Burman.....	38
132. An Act for the relief of Gabriel Burszan.....	39

DIVORCES—Continued

CHAP.	PAGE
133. An Act for the relief of Naomi Joan Williamson Cantlie.....	40
134. An Act for the relief of William John Carmichael.....	41
135. An Act for the relief of James Albert Carruthers, otherwise known as James Albert Fell.....	42
136. An Act for the relief of Gaston Cartier.....	43
137. An Act for the relief of Mildred Verna Ruth Schnauffer Case.....	44
138. An Act for the relief of Norma Mary Sharp Chapman.....	45
139. An Act for the relief of Evelyn Alice Lancaster Chenoweth.....	46
140. An Act for the relief of Rita Johnson Cherrier.....	47
141. An Act for the relief of Mary Joyce Joly Clark.....	48
142. An Act for the relief of Violet Olive Magdalene Allechin Clark.....	49
143. An Act for the relief of Sophie Radwolsky Closner.....	50
144. An Act for the relief of Jessie Leonard Simpson Clunie.....	51
145. An Act for the relief of Claude Garcin Coffin.....	52
146. An Act for the relief of Sarah Goldberg Cohen.....	53
147. An Act for the relief of Alberta Dorothy Olson Colby.....	54
148. An Act for the relief of Gertrude Helen Cayford Collins.....	55
149. An Act for the relief of Woolf (Robert) Cook.....	56
150. An Act for the relief of Bruce Montgomery Cooper.....	57
151. An Act for the relief of Grace Evelyn Smith Copeland.....	58
152. An Act for the relief of Guido Corbo.....	59
153. An Act for the relief of Joseph Amedee Alexis Cousineau.....	60
154. An Act for the relief of Ethel Mary McKenzie Cramp.....	61
155. An Act for the relief of Rosamond Edith Bean Crease.....	62
156. An Act for the relief of Gabrielle Augustine Gilberte Desmarais Creelman.....	63
157. An Act for the relief of Mary Josephine Jessop Croker.....	64
158. An Act for the relief of Evelyn Clara Woods Cross.....	65
159. An Act for the relief of Lilly Elizabeth Ingborg Lindfors Crowhurst.....	66
160. An Act for the relief of Evelyn Margaret Morrison Cryer.....	67
161. An Act for the relief of Matilda Jane Cumming.....	68
162. An Act for the relief of Lily Elizabeth Harris Cunningham.....	69
163. An Act for the relief of Margaret Isabelle Curry.....	70
164. An Act for the relief of Pauline Bertha Marwick Dallison.....	71
165. An Act for the relief of Emilienne Grinsell Daoust.....	72
166. An Act for the relief of Edith Norma Isaac Davidson.....	73
167. An Act for the relief of Eileen Millar De Levi.....	74
168. An Act for the relief of Hilda Katz Delnick.....	75
169. An Act for the relief of Maud Mary Rose Denton.....	76
170. An Act for the relief of Jessie Alberta Allan Derby.....	77
171. An Act for the relief of Norma Lorraine Desrosiers.....	78
172. An Act for the relief of James Dewey, Junior.....	79
173. An Act for the relief of Isabel Lindsay Mackay Dietz.....	80
174. An Act for the relief of Agnes Jane Irwin Everitt Dixon.....	81
175. An Act for the relief of Florence Alice Mapston Calcutt Doak.....	82
176. An Act for the relief of Clinton Leslie Dobson.....	83
177. An Act for the relief of Charles Augustus Dolling.....	84
178. An Act for the relief of Gladys Elizabeth Thompson Dorrance.....	85
179. An Act for the relief of Margaret Jean Duff Dorval.....	86
180. An Act for the relief of Madeleine Agnes Joly de Lotbiniere Doucet.....	87
181. An Act for the relief of Margaret Sophie Bolenski Dubeau.....	88
182. An Act for the relief of Celia Yaffe Dubinsky.....	89
183. An Act for the relief of Eileen Edna Paget Bray Dundas.....	90
184. An Act for the relief of Mary Winifred Joyce Dick Dunford.....	91

DIVORCES—Continued

CHAP.	PAGE
185. An Act for the relief of Muriel Emma Wood Durrell.....	92
186. An Act for the relief of Joseph Rosealphee Oderic Dussault.....	93
187. An Act for the relief of Hilda Constance Caroline Mosley Dwyer.....	94
188. An Act for the relief of George Wilson Dyce.....	95
189. An Act for the relief of Henry Eaton.....	96
190. An Act for the relief of Alma Mary Hanway Eccles.....	97
191. An Act for the relief of Isabella Hodgson McRae Edwards.....	98
192. An Act for the relief of Fern Catherine Kerr Ekins.....	99
193. An Act for the relief of Zenobia Perrow Broadbent Emond.....	100
194. An Act for the relief of Livio Quintino Fantacci.....	101
195. An Act for the relief of Francis George Isaac Fellows.....	102
196. An Act for the relief of Olive Viola Olsson Ferguson.....	103
197. An Act for the relief of Muriel Aileen MacKeage Fewtrell.....	104
198. An Act for the relief of Sophie Wener Finestone.....	105
199. An Act for the relief of Mildred Lillian Flude.....	106
200. An Act for the relief of Richard Andrew Frame.....	107
201. An Act for the relief of Louis Marcel Frigon.....	108
202. An Act for the relief of Edward Frank Fulton.....	109
203. An Act for the relief of Lillian Guerasio Galardo.....	110
204. An Act for the relief of Gertrude Loiseau Gaulin.....	111
205. An Act for the relief of Alderic Gemme.....	112
206. An Act for the relief of Ronald Edwin George.....	113
207. An Act for the relief of Dorothy Kathleen Morrison Germain.....	114
208. An Act for the relief of Louis Gertsman.....	115
209. An Act for the relief of Louise Guiol Ghetler.....	116
210. An Act for the relief of Mary Magee Glasheen.....	117
211. An Act for the relief of Mary Margaret Tibbins Gogo.....	118
212. An Act for the relief of Sheila Sydney Doner Gordon.....	119
213. An Act for the relief of Evelyn May McNaught Grandison.....	120
214. An Act for the relief of Rose Jacobson Greenberg.....	121
215. An Act for the relief of Jean Gainfort Grossman.....	122
216. An Act for the relief of Eveline Hache Groulx.....	123
217. An Act for the relief of Mary Alice Berrigan Hamelin.....	124
218. An Act for the relief of Bertha Bercovici Hamer.....	125
219. An Act for the relief of Norma Elizabeth Jane Murray Hanko.....	126
220. An Act for the relief of Ellen Irene Gertrude Preston Hastie.....	127
221. An Act for the relief of Thomas Wynn Hayes, Junior.....	128
222. An Act for the relief of Otto Hemlein.....
223. An Act for the relief of Minnie Black Herman.....	129
224. An Act for the relief of Thelma Lillian Dalton Hilger, otherwise known as Thelma Lillian Dalton Goernert.....	130 131
225. An Act for the relief of Dorothy May Duff Hisey.....	132
226. An Act for the relief of Pearl Vesta Fields Hollenbeck.....	133
227. An Act for the relief of Alfred John Holton.....	134
228. An Act for the relief of Daniel Hudson.....	135
229. An Act for the relief of Elisa Jamoul Hull.....	136
230. An Act for the relief of Ruby Weldrick Hunt.....	137
231. An Act for the relief of Dorothy Bradford Hurley.....	138
232. An Act for the relief of Annie Lucy Hurteau.....	139
233. An Act for the relief of Margaret Joan Anstey Steven Hyslop.....	140
234. An Act for the relief of Sheila Marcus Isenman.....	141
235. An Act for the relief of Dorothy Mary Boyce Jackson.....	142
236. An Act for the relief of Robert Thomas Jackson.....	143

DIVORCES—Continued

CHAP.	PAGE
237. An Act for the relief of Sarah Rafferty Jackson.....	144
238. An Act for the relief of Aime Jacques.....	145
239. An Act for the relief of Paul Jaeggin.....	146
240. An Act for the relief of George William Curtis Johnson.....	147
241. An Act for the relief of Elsie Marlyn Garayt Johnston.....	148
242. An Act for the relief of Frances Alice Egg Johnston, otherwise known as Frances Alice Egg Willey Johnston.....	149
243. An Act for the relief of Pamela Mackay Alderdice Johnstone.....	150
244. An Act for the relief of John Bernth Jones, otherwise known as John Berth Jones.....	151
245. An Act for the relief of John William Sydney Jordan.....	152
246. An Act for the relief of Ernest Edward Joslin.....	153
247. An Act for the relief of Elly Zahn Kaminsky.....	154
248. An Act for the relief of Irene Laflamme Kattas.....	155
249. An Act for the relief of Minnie Braimaster Kazarensky.....	156
250. An Act for the relief of Charles-Alfred Michel Kelly.....	157
251. An Act for the relief of Mary Margaret Bernice Walker Kennedy.....	158
252. An Act for the relief of Adele Brown Kerkofsky.....	159
253. An Act for the relief of Eileen Francis Murphy Kerson.....	160
254. An Act for the relief of James Alexander King.....	161
255. An Act for the relief of Robert Crawford Kirk.....	162
256. An Act for the relief of Eugene Klein.....	163
257. An Act for the relief of Peggy Alicia Stilwell Kneeland.....	164
258. An Act for the relief of Doris Shapiro Kolman.....	165
259. An Act for the relief of Margaret Hazel Reid Koppel.....	166
260. An Act for the relief of Christos C. Koukouvelis.....	167
261. An Act for the relief of Frances Audrey Gray Lacaille.....	168
262. An Act for the relief of Gaston Dorval Lachance.....	169
263. An Act for the relief of Majorie Aileen Copping Ladouceur.....	170
264. An Act for the relief of Olivier Pierre Bernard Lagueux.....	171
265. An Act for the relief of Elizabeth Butler Roberts Lambton.....	172
266. An Act for the relief of Charles James Langevin.....	173
267. An Act for the relief of Aline Theoret Larose.....	174
268. An Act for the relief of Elmon Parker Law.....	175
269. An Act for the relief of Alsyae Mae Lissemore Lawrence.....	176
270. An Act for the relief of Frances Clare Lynch Layton.....	177
271. An Act for the relief of Hilda Irene Gordon Lazarus.....	178
272. An Act for the relief of Olive Lever Sanborn Lead.....	179
273. An Act for the relief of Roger Lebeau.....	180
274. An Act for the relief of Isabel Mercer Lebœuf.....	181
275. An Act for the relief of Netta Cheyne Lee.....	182
276. An Act for the relief of Thelma Genender Lefkowitz.....	183
277. An Act for the relief of Adele Kuznetz Lesser.....	184
278. An Act for the relief of Bea Helen Taftert Levin.....	185
279. An Act for the relief of Elizabeth Anne Eden Lindsay.....	186
280. An Act for the relief of Ernest Edward Lippiatt.....	187
281. An Act for the relief of Una Kathleen Balmfirth Little.....	188
282. An Act for the relief of Robert Rosaire Loiselle.....	189
283. An Act for the relief of John Luchuck.....	190
284. An Act for the relief of Robert Lussier.....	191
285. An Act for the relief of Evelyn Ethel May Reich Macdonell.....	192
286. An Act for the relief of Arthur Haigh MacGill.....	193
287. An Act for the relief of Frances Eileen Scribner Mackay.....	194
288. An Act for the relief of Lillian May Alsop Mackenzie.....	195

INDEX—Continued

v

DIVORCES—Continued

CHAP.	PAGE
289. An Act for the relief of John Mackie.....	196
290. An Act for the relief of Jessie Gertrude Noel Magee.....	197
291. An Act for the relief of Jessie Goodis Markis.....	198
292. An Act for the relief of Eleanor Edith McKechnie Martineau.....	199
293. An Act for the relief of Marie Irene Joly Martineau.....	200
294. An Act for the relief of Grace Emily Dawes Matheson.....	201
295. An Act for the relief of Henry Thomas Matthews.....	202
296. An Act for the relief of Mabel Grace Mattinson.....	203
297. An Act for the relief of Ruby Campbell Matts.....	204
298. An Act for the relief of Michael Maturjiw, otherwise known as Michal Matwijow....	205
299. An Act for the relief of Elly Maria Charlotte Alden McBride.....	206
300. An Act for the relief of Charles Frederick McDowall.....	207
301. An Act for the relief of Marion Naomi Gomery McGee.....	208
302. An Act for the relief of Evelyn Marie Elliott McGrath.....	209
303. An Act for the relief of Katie Rhoda Brick McGrath.....	210
304. An Act for the relief of Clair Reginald McLaughlin.....	211
305. An Act for the relief of Doris Louise Dickson McMurray.....	212
306. An Act for the relief of William John Edgar McVetty.....	213
307. An Act for the relief of Joseph Alexander Oswald Mercier.....	214
308. An Act for the relief of Leone Rhea Leduc Metcalf.....	215
309. An Act for the relief of Maurice Michael.....	216
310. An Act for the relief of Edith Dean Michaels.....	217
311. An Act for the relief of Claire Morgan Lockner Middleton-Hope.....	218
312. An Act for the relief of Ann Bogdanof Millichamp.....	219
313. An Act for the relief of Dallas Sara Barnes Millington.....	220
314. An Act for the relief of Anne Fishman Minsk.....	221
315. An Act for the relief of Edith Oberfeld Mintz.....	222
316. An Act for the relief of Alexander Monteith.....	223
317. An Act for the relief of Omer Montpetit, Junior.....	224
318. An Act for the relief of Thomas Walter John Moon.....	225
319. An Act for the relief of Evelyn Deltoff Moore.....	226
320. An Act for the relief of Elsie King Moorhouse.....	227
321. An Act for the relief of Theresa Sherpitis Morganti.....	228
322. An Act for the relief of Peter Moroz, otherwise known as Peter Morris.....	229
323. An Act for the relief of Pamela Mary Gottschalk Muckell.....	230
324. An Act for the relief of Pauline Joan Hyde Murphy.....	231
325. An Act for the relief of Victor Reid Murray.....	232
326. An Act for the relief of Dorothy Hawkins Myers.....	233
327. An Act for the relief of Stewart Davidson Myles.....	234
328. An Act for the relief of Rose Lazar Nadigel.....	235
329. An Act for the relief of Lodie Kadei Nakel.....	236
330. An Act for the relief of Robert Alfred Nall.....	237
331. An Act for the relief of Mary Hrab Navrotzki.....	238
332. An Act for the relief of Proctor Clifford Neil.....	239
333. An Act for the relief of Charles Gordon Nelson.....	240
334. An Act for the relief of Eugenia Drake Armstrong Newell.....	241
335. An Act for the relief of Constance Mae Ponman Newman.....	242
336. An Act for the relief of Alfred Nelson Nickle.....	243
337. An Act for the relief of Henrietta Elizabeth Forde Norrie.....	244
338. An Act for the relief of Gladys May Kay Oliver.....	245
339. An Act for the relief of Doris Victoria Bellisle Page.....	246
340. An Act for the relief of William Page.....	247
341. An Act for the relief of Alison McKinnon Palmer.....	248

DIVORCES—Continued

CHAP.	PAGE
342. An Act for the relief of Ronald John Park.....	249
343. An Act for the relief of Muriel Alice Goddard Perkins.....	250
344. An Act for the relief of Beatrice Elman Perlman.....	251
345. An Act for the relief of Ethel Ornstein Pfeffer.....	252
346. An Act for the relief of Edwin Theophilus Phillips.....	253
347. An Act for the relief of Ida Lottie Stubina Pollack.....	254
348. An Act for the relief of Ethel Florence Rhodes Pompetti, otherwise known as Ethel Florence Crowdy Pompetti.....	255
349. An Act for the relief of Doris Phœbe Potter Potts.....	256
350. An Act for the relief of Harry Powell.....	257
351. An Act for the relief of Gardner Hinkley Prescott.....	258
352. An Act for the relief of Sam Pronman.....	259
353. An Act for the relief of Evelyn Florence Esson Pugh.....	260
354. An Act for the relief of Marjorie Evelyn MacPherson Puley.....	261
355. An Act for the relief of Mary Kalichman Pulver.....	262
356. An Act for the relief of Juliette Adrienne Labrosse Renaud.....	263
357. An Act for the relief of Marie Rose Alba Bernadette Lapointe dit Robin Ricard...	264
358. An Act for the relief of Romeo Richard.....	265
359. An Act for the relief of Eileen Maude Gardner Richards.....	266
360. An Act for the relief of Margaret Patricia Fairhurst Richards.....	267
361. An Act for the relief of Mary Ann Clorenda Archer Richardson.....	268
362. An Act for the relief of Eugenie Beatrice Smith Ricketts.....	269
363. An Act for the relief of Jean Lawrence Ritchie.....	270
364. An Act for the relief of Harold Ashton Hugh Roberts.....	271
365. An Act for the relief of Marian Susan Willson Roberts.....	272
366. An Act for the relief of Harold Robinson.....	273
367. An Act for the relief of Irene Elizabeth Burke Robinson.....	274
368. An Act for the relief of Muriel Amelia Dufty Rochet.....	275
369. An Act for the relief of Gloria Avon Roland.....	276
370. An Act for the relief of Peter Samuel Rosen.....	277
371. An Act for the relief of Bernadette Mayford Roy.....	278
372. An Act for the relief of Hazel Mair Grant Rubin.....	279
373. An Act for the relief of Norma Marzitelli Rudzik.....	280
374. An Act for the relief of Ernest Stanley Rundell.....	281
375. An Act for the relief of Jean Isabel Dalton Ryan.....	282
376. An Act for the relief of Donat St. Jean.....	283
377. An Act for the relief of Judith Bychowsky Sanders.....	284
378. An Act for the relief of Joseph Edmond Gerard Santoire.....	285
379. An Act for the relief of Margaret Lena Bertha Dasen Scheffer.....	286
380. An Act for the relief of Betty Gertrude Bernstein Schreiber.....	287
381. An Act for the relief of Molly Marcovitch Schwartz.....	288
382. An Act for the relief of Irja Alina Agnes Vaisanen Shanahan.....	289
383. An Act for the relief of Veronica Donnelly Hope Johnstone Shelley.....	290
384. An Act for the relief of Ethel Florence Barr Sheills.....	291
385. An Act for the relief of Ruth Morrison Henderson Sidders.....	292
386. An Act for the relief of Bessie Letovsky Silverman.....	293
387. An Act for the relief of Rose Nemerofsky Silverstein.....	294
388. An Act for the relief of Marcel Simonon.....	295
389. An Act for the relief of Pearl Summers Slater.....	296
390. An Act for the relief of Evelyn Alice Howard Smart.....	297
391. An Act for the relief of Marjorie Winnifred Bearman Smeall.....	298
392. An Act for the relief of Annie Mildred Parnell Smellie.....	299
393. An Act for the relief of Hilda Mary Charlotte Kelly Smith.....	300

INDEX—Concluded

vii

DIVORCES—Concluded

CHAP.	PAGE
394. An Act for the relief of Jessie MacFarlane Boyle Smith.....	301
395. An Act for the relief of Libby Margolese Smith.....	302
396. An Act for the relief of Rhondda Blanche Peace Hurford Smith.....	303
397. An Act for the relief of Mildred Merica Ruth Goodreau Snyder.....	304
398. An Act for the relief of Harold Fassett Staniforth.....	305
399. An Act for the relief of Rose Elkin Steinman.....	306
400. An Act for the relief of Evangeline May Connelly Stervinou.....	307
401. An Act for the relief of Alice Hamilton Peck Stevenson.....	308
402. An Act for the relief of Florence Nancy Maria Haworth Stewart.....	309
403. An Act for the relief of Selden Grant Stoddard.....	310
404. An Act for the relief of Evelyn Mildred Cook Stone.....	311
405. An Act for the relief of Mary Nellie McGurk Stone.....	312
406. An Act for the relief of Percy Coleman Stuart.....	313
407. An Act for the relief of Harold Swann.....	314
408. An Act for the relief of Joyce Kathleen Reynolds Swards.....	315
409. An Act for the relief of Melville Mae Rundle Swinburne.....	316
410. An Act for the relief of Ellen Heathcote Taschereau.....	317
411. An Act for the relief of Adeline Charlotte Simone Desjardins Teakle.....	318
412. An Act for the relief of Eileen Ardis Locke Thompson.....	319
413. An Act for the relief of Jean Elizabeth Hancock Thompson.....	320
414. An Act for the relief of Ida Norma Thompson Thornton.....	321
415. An Act for the relief of Eva Greenblatt Thow.....	322
416. An Act for the relief of Violet Eileen Lepine Tickner.....	323
417. An Act for the relief of Doreen Jeannette Sibley Tirbutt.....	324
418. An Act for the relief of Goldie Slovinsky Tkatch.....	325
419. An Act for the relief of Gladys Kathleen Wilkins Todd.....	326
420. An Act for the relief of Robert Ralph Tripp.....	327
421. An Act for the relief of Margaret Cote Truax.....	328
422. An Act for the relief of Guido Verdoni.....	329
423. An Act for the relief of Gustave Lucien Verhelle.....	330
424. An Act for the relief of Clinton Escott Vipond.....	331
425. An Act for the relief of Fennie Nettie Adelstein Waldman.....	332
426. An Act for the relief of Jack Wallis.....	333
427. An Act for the relief of Margaret Turner Shaw Ward.....	334
428. An Act for the relief of Pierre-Ben-Danais Warren.....	335
429. An Act for the relief of Anthony Wavroch.....	336
430. An Act for the relief of Esther Lancit Weiss.....	337
431. An Act for the relief of Ralph Wighton.....	338
432. An Act for the relief of Patricia Ellen Burt Williams.....	339
433. An Act for the relief of Anna Lovannah Theoret Wilson.....	340
434. An Act for the relief of Claire Black Wolfe.....	341
435. An Act for the relief of William Walter Woodall.....	342
436. An Act for the relief of Winnifred Doris Cleaver Wooley.....	343
437. An Act for the relief of Dan Alonzo Dwight Wright.....	344
438. An Act for the relief of Ernest Wright.....	345
439. An Act for the relief of Cipoire Segall Wurmbrand.....	346
440. An Act for the relief of Mile Kristo Yoja, otherwise known as StanleyVadic.....	347
441. An Act for the relief of Archie William Young.....	348
442. An Act for the relief of Ida Berman Zatz.....	349
443. An Act for the relief of Esther Cole Zeesman.....	350

LAWS 498449
Canada. Statutes, etc.
Statutes of Canada.
1947, v.2

Statutes
Can

For use in the Library
ONLY

U Toronto

DO NOT REMOVE THE CARD FROM THIS POCKET

Acme Library Card Pocket
LOWE-MARTIN CO. LIMITED

